CHAP. XII.

I In a parable of the vineyard let out to unthankfull husbandmen, Christ for etelleth the reprobation of the Jews, and the calling of the Gentiles. 13 He avoideth the snare of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Cefar: 18 convincetb the errour of the Sadduces, who denied the resurrection: 28 resolveth the Scribe, who questioned of the first commandment: 35 refuteth the opinion that the Scribes held of Christ: 38 bidding the people to beware of their ambition & hypocrifie: 41 and commendeth the poore widow for her two mites, above all,

Nd * he began to speak unto them by pa-A rables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and fet an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefae, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a farre countrey.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a fervant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him and beat him, and fent him away empty.

4 And again he fent unto them another fervant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and fent him avvay shamefully handled.

5 And again, he fent another, and him they killed: and many others, beating some, and killing fome.

6 Having yet therefore one sonne, his welbeloved, he fent him also last unto them, faying, They will reverence my fonne.

7 But those husbandmen said amongst themselves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias faw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel faid unto him, Fear not,

Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladnesse, and many shall rejoyce at his birth. 15 For he shall be great in the fight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, even from his mothers yombe.

14 But when the husbandmen faw him . they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him our of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the Lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they faid, God forbid.

I Christ raiseth Lazarus foure dayes buried. 45 Many Fews beleeve. 47 The high priests. and Pharifees gather a councel against Christ. 49 Caiaphus praphefieth. 54 Jesus bid bimfelf. 55 At the passeover they enquire after him, and lay wait for him.

Now a cestain man was lick, named Laza-rus of Bethanie, the town of Mary and her fifter Martha.

( * It was that Mary which anointed the *Matt. 26.7. Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick)

3 Therefore his fifters lent unto him, laying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest, is fick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he faid, This sicknesse is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was fick, he abode two dayes fill in the same place where he was.

7. Then after that faith he to his disciples. Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late fought to stone thee, and goest thou thither again?

9. Jesus answered, Are there not twelve houres in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

II These things said he, and after that, he faith unto them, Our friend Lazarus fleepeth. but I go that I may awake him out of fleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he fleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death; but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep. 14 Then faid Jesus unto them plainly, La-

39 Jesus faid, Take ye away the Rone. Martha, the fifter of him that was dead, faith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead foure dayes. 40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest beleeve thou shouldest see the glory of God?

Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and faid, Father, I thank thee that thou haft heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me alwayes: but because of the people which fland by, I faid it, that they may believe that thou haft fent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jefus faith unto them, Loofe him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had feen the things which Jefus did, beleeved on him.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharifees, and told them what things Jefus had done.

47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharifees a councel, and faid, What do we? for this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleeve on him; and the Romanes shall come and take away both our place and nation.

40 And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same yeare, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 * Nor confider that it is expedient for us, *Chap. 18.14 that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

I And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that yeare, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation: 52 And not for that nation onely, but that also he should gather together in one, the children of God that were scattered abroad.

73 Then from that day forth, they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews: but went thence unto a countrey neare to the wildernesse, into a city called Ephraim, & there continued with his disciples.

Hen Jesus, six dayes before the passeaver, I came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha ferved: but Lazarus was one of them that fat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment, of spikenard, very coffly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment

4 Then faith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment fold for three hundred pence, and given to the poore?

6 This he faid, not that he cared for the poore: but because he was a thief, and *had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7. Then said Jesus, Let heralone, against the day of my burying hath the kept this. 8 For the poore alwayes ye have with you:

but me ye have not alwayes.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there; and they came, not for Jelus fake onely, but that they might fee Lazarus alfo, whom he had raised from the dead.

To T But the chief priests consulted, that they might put Lazarus alfo to death.

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and beleeved on Jefus. latt. 21.8. 12 9 On the next day, much people that were come to the feaft, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna, blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus when he had found a young affe, fat thereon, as it is written,

15 * Fear not, daughter of Sion; behold thy King cometh, fitting on an affes colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembred they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. 17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raifed him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle, ig The Pharifees therefore faid among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The fame came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethfaida of Galilee, and defired him, faying, Sir, we would fee Jefus.

glorified it, and will glorifie it again.

29 The people therefore that flood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered, and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your fakes.

31 Now is the judgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

5 Then Jesus sauth unto them, || Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he faid unto them; Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of sistes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved, faith unto Peter, It is the Lord, Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fishers coat unto him, (for he was naked) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little thip (for they were not farre from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.

9 Affoon then as they were come to land, they faw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jefus faith unto them, Bring of the fish,

II Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why fland ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jefus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come, in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath-dayes journey.

13 And when they were come in they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his bre-

I Peter preaching to the people that came to see a lame man restored to his feet, 12 professeth the cure not to have been wrought by bis or Johns own power, or holinesse, but by God, & his Sonne Festur, and through faith in bis name : 13 withall reprehending them for crucifying Jesus. 17 which because they did it through ignorance, and that thereby were fulfilled Gods determinate counsel, and the Scriptures, 19 be exhorteth them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their finnes, and salvation in the same Fesus.

12 Neither is there salvation in any others for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they faw the boldnesse of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed flanding with them, they could fay nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the councel, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you more then unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have feen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatned them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above fourty yeares old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had faid unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they life up their voice to God with one accord, and foid, Lord, thou art God which haft made heaven and earth, and the fea, and all that in them is.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were poffeffours of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were fold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles feet: and distribution was made unto every man ac-

But a certain man named Ananias with Sap-phira his wife, fold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privie to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles feet.

3 But Peter faid, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart | to lie to the holy Ghoft, and to keep backpart of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was fold, was it not in thine own powers why haft thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou haft not lied unto men, but unto God,

5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell down and gave up the ghost : and great fear came on all them that heard thefe things.

6 And the young men arole, wound him up, and carried him our, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three houres after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye fold the land for for much. And she faid, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter faid unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the doore, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell the down straightway at his teet, and yeelded up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

II And great fear came upon all the church. and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the apostles were many fignes and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

CHAP. VIII.

By occusion of the persecution in Jerusalem, the church being planted in Samaria s by Philip the deacon, who preached, did miracles, and baptized many, among the rest Simon the sorcerer, a great seducer of the people; 14 Peter and John come to consum, and enlarge the church: where by prayer, and imposition of hands, giving the boly Ghost, 18 when Simon would have bought the like power of them, 20 Peter Sarply reproving bis bypocrific, and covetous essential bim to repentance, together with John preaching the word of the Lord, return to Jerusalem. 26 But the angel sendeth Philip to teach, and baptize the Ethiopiam ennuch.

And at that time there was a great perfecution against the church which was at Jerusalemrusalem, and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his buriall, and made great lamentation over

As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entring into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went every where preaching the word.

Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6. And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing, and feeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were pollefled with them: and many taken with palfies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

- 9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which before-time in the same city used forcerie, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great
- 10 To whom they all gave heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with forceries.

12 But when they beleeved Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdome of God, and the name of Jefus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

73 Then Simon himfelf beleeved alfor and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and fignes which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they fent unto them Peter and John.

15 Who when they were come down, prayed for them that they might receive the holy

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: onely they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon faw that through laying on of the apostles hands, the holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give mealfo this power, that on whomfoever I lay hands, he may receive the holy Ghoft.

20 But Peter faid unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou haft neither part nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not right in the fight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wicked. nesse, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitternesse, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of thefe things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they when they had teftified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritanes.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, faying, Arife, and go toward the fouth, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is defert.

27 And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authoritie under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship,

28 Was returning, and fitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go neare, and joyn thy felf to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him reade the prophet Efaias, and faid, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he faid, How can I, except some man should guide me? and he defired Philip that he would come up, and fit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read, was this, * He was led as a sheep to the * Isa. 53.7. shaughter, and like a lambe dumbe before his thearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation, his judgement was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and faid, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch faid, See, here is water, what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip Said, If thou beleevest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I beleeve that Jesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the XXX 2 water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch favy him no more: and he went on his way rejoycing. 40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cefarea.

2 And defired of him letters to Damascus to the fynagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed he came neare Damalcus, and fuddenly there thined round about him a light from heaven.

And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice faying unto him, Saul, Saul, why perfecuteft

5 And he faid, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord faid, I am Jefus whom thou perfecureft: It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and aftonished, faid, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord faid unto him, Arife, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do,

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechlesse, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he faw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

o And he was three dayes without fight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias, and to him faid the Lord in a vision, Ananias, And he laid, Behold, I am bere, Lord.

11 And the Lord faid unto him, Arife, and go into the Areet, which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas, for one called Saul of Tarfus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath feen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and purting his hand on him, that he might receive his fight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy faints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to binde all that call on thy name. 15 But the Lord faid unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Ifrael.

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my names sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and putting his hands on him, faid, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou cameft) hath fent me, that thou mightest receive thy fight, and be filled with the holy Ghoft,

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales, and he received fight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And ftraightway he preached Christ in the lynagogues, that he is the Sonne of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and faid, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priefts?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 of And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 * But their laying await was known of *2. Cor. 1 Saul: and they watched the gates day and night 32. to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a balket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he affayed to joyn himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, and beleeved not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of 28 And he was with them coming in, and going out at Jerufalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jefus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to flay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cefarea, and fent him forth to Tarfus.

I Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghoft, were multiplied.

32 And it came to paffe, as Peter paffed throughthroughout all quarters, he came down also to the faints which develt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight yeares, and was fick of the pallie.

34 And Peter faid unto him, Ancas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron, faw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works, and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

- 38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the distiples had heard that Peter was there, they fent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not || delay to come to them.
- 39 Then Peter arofe, and went with them: when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows flood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.
- 40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down and prayed, and turning him to the body, faid, Tabitha, arife. And the opened her eyes: and when the faw Peter, the fat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the lynagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and perswading the things concerning the kingdome of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and beleeved not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and feparated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two yeares, so that all they which dwelt in Asia. heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought speciall miracles by the hands of Paul.

II And the night following the Lord flood by him, and faid, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves | under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him afide privately, and asked him, What is that thou haft to tell me?

20 And he faid, The Jews have agreed to desire thee , that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the councel, as though perfectly.

21 But do not thou yeeld unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them moe then fourty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man, that thou haft flewed thefe things to me, 23 And he called unto him two centurions, laying, Make ready two hundred fouldiers to go to Cefarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third houre of the night.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their councel:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of que itions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me, how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I fent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accufers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the fouldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle.

enformed the governour against Paul.

3 We accept it alwayes, & in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulneffe.

4 Notwithstanding that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare us of thy clemency a few words.

For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the fect of the Nazarenes.

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom, thy felf mayest take knowledge of all thefethings, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also affented, saying, that thele things were lo.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had beckened unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou haft been of many yeares a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully aniver for my felf:

II Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve dayes fince I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the fynagogues, nor in the citie:

. 13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse unto thee, that after the way which they call herefie, so worthip I the God of my fathers, beleeving all things which are written in the law and the prophets:

15 And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a refurrection of the dead, both of the just & unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise my self to have alwayes a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

termost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have libertie, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minifter, or come unto him.

24 And after certain dayes, when Felix came with his wife Drufilla, which was a Jeweffe, he fent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousnesse, temperance, and judgement to come . Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient feafon, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loofe him: wherefore he fent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cefarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, faid he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickednesse in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more then ten dayes, he went down unto Or, as some Cefarea, and the next day fitting in the judge- copies ment-feat, commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he was come, the Jews which eight or ten

19 Who ought to have been here before came down from Jerusalem, stood round about, dayer, and laid many and grievous complaints against

Paul, which they could not prove:

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cefar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Feltus willing to do the Jews a pleafure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thougo up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then faid Paul, I stand at Cefars judgement-feat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knovveft.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cefar.

12 Then Festus when he had conferred with the councel, answered, Haft thou appealed unto Cefar ? unto Cefar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain dayes, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cefarea to falute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many dayes, Festus declared Pauls cause unto the king, faying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15- About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jewsenformed me, defiring to have judgement against 16 To whom I answered. It is not the manner of the Romanes to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused; have the accufers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I fat on the judgement-feat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

23. And on the morrow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entred into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principall men of the citie, at Fe-Rus commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this. man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himfelf hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to fend him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord: wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, Oking Agrippa, that after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to fend a prisoner, and not withall to fignific the crimes laid against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

2 Paul in the presence of Agrippa, declareth. bu life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to bis apostleship. 24 Festus chargeth him to be mad, whereunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost perswaded to be a Chri-Stian. 31 The whole company pronounce biminnocent.

Hen Agrippa faid unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thy self. Then Paul thretched forth the hand, and answered for himself.

2 I think my felf happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for my self this day before. thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert in all customes and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I befeech thee to heare me patiently.

4. My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerufalem, know all the Jews,

Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would teftifie) that after the most straiteft fect of our religion, I lived a Pharifee.

6 And now I stand, & am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers.

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes inflantly ferving God day and night, hope to come: for which hopes fake, king Agrippa, I. am accused of the Jews.

12 *Whereupon as I went to Damascus, with authoritie & commission from the chief priests:

13 At midday, Oking, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightneffe of the funne, thining round about me, and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, - I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why perfecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick againft the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord ? And he faid, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rife, and stand upon thy feet, for I have appeared unto thee for this purpole, to make thee a minister and a witnesse both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee,

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I fend thee, 18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darknesse to light, and from the power of Saran unto God, that they may receive forgivenesse of sinnes, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, Oking Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But thewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God. I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things then · those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus faid with a loud voice, Paul thou art befide thy felf, much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and Soberne fle.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hidden from him : for this thing was not done in a corner, 27 King Agrippa, beleevest thou the prophets ? I know that thou beleeveft.

28 Then Agrippa faid unto Paul, Almost thou perswadett me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul faid, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king role up, and the governour, and Bernice, and they that fat with them.

31 And when they were gone alide, they talked between themselves, taying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then faid Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cefar.

Nd when it was determined that we Thould fail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other priloners, unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus band.

2 And entring into a ship of Adramyttium, we lanched meaning to fail by the coafts of Afia, one Aristarchus a Macedonian, of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had lanched from thence, we failed under Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

s And when we had failed over the fea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia.

10 And faid unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with | hurt and much da- | Or, injury mage, not onely of the lading and thip, but also of our lives. II Nevertheleffe, the centurion beleeved the master and the owner of the ship, more then those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commo-. dious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the fouth-west, and north-west.

13 And when the fouth-winde blew foftly, Supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loofing thence they failed close by Crete, Or, beas.

14 But not long after there || arose against it a tempestuous winde, called Euroclydon. 15 And when the thip was caught, and could not bear up into the winde, we let her drive,

16 And running under a certain iffund which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat : 17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the thip; and fearing lest they should fall into the quickfands, strake fail and so were driven.

18 And being exceedingly toffed with a tempeff, the next day they lightened the thip;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither lunne, nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and faid, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loofed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loffe.

22 And now Lexhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, but of the ship,

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not Paul, thou must be brought before Cefar; and lo, God hath given thee all them that fail with thee.

25 Wherefore firs, be of good cheer: for I beleeve God, that it shall be even as it was told 26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain illand.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they drew neare to some countrey :

29 Then fearing left we should have fallen upon rocks, they east foure anchors out of the ftern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the fea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31. Paul said to the centurion, and to the fouldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be faved.

32 Then the fouldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33. And while the day was coming on,

Paul befought them all to take meat, faying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat, for this is for your health : for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all, and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And wewere in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and fixteen fouls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the fea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, for cut the they committed themselves unto the sea, and anchors, they loofed the rudder-bands, and hoifed up the lift them in main fail to the winde, and made toward the fea, to. thore, 41 And falling into a place where two feas met, they ran the thip aground, and the forepart ituck fait, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the fouldiers counsel was to kill the prisoners, left any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to fave Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could fivin, should cast themfelves first into the fea, and get to land :

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship: And so it came to paffe that they escaped all safe to land.

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be faints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witnesse, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Sonne, that without ceafing I make mention of you alwayes in my prayers,

10 Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come unto you. II For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spirituall gift, to the end you may be established. 12 That is, that I may be comforted toge-Or, in you, ther | with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me.

14 I am debter both to the Greeks, & to the barbarians, both to the wife, and to the unwife.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that beleeveth, to the Jew firit, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteoninesse of God revealed from faith to faith : as it is written, * The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodlinesse, and unrighteoulnesse of men, who hold the truth in unrighteoulneffe.

21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

themselves:

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcifion dost transgresse the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcifion, which is outward in the flesh.

10 Asit is written, There is none righteous, no not one :

II There is none that under standeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throat is an open fepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison

15 Their feet are swift to shed bloud,

16 Destruction & milery are in their waves: 17 And the way of peace have they not 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Nove we know that what things foever the law faith, it faith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become | guilty before God.

20. Therefore by the deeds of the lavy, there shall no flesh be justified in his fight: for by the law is the knowledge of finne.

21 But now the righteousnesse of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets.

23 Even the righteousnesse of God, which is by faith of Jelus Chrift unto all, and upon all them that beleeve: for there is no difference :

23 For all have finned, and come short of the glory of God.

24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ: 27 Whom God hath | fer forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his bloud, to declare his righteousnesse for the || remission of sinnes that are past, through the forbearance of God.

26 To declare, I fay, at this time his righteoulnesse: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which beleeveth in Jefus. 27 Where is boafting then? it is excluded.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is ju-flified by faith without the deeds of the lave. 29 Is he the God of the Jews onely? is he not also of the Gentiles Yes, of the Gentiles

30 Seeing it is one God which shall justifie the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

21 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAP. IIII. Abrahams faith was imputed to bim for righteousnesse, to before he was circumcised. 13 By faith onely he and his feed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that beleeve. 24 Our faith alfo (ball be imputed to us for righteousnesse.

7 Hat shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the fleth, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what faith the scripture? Abraham beleeved God, and it was counted unto him for righteouineffe.

4 Now to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeveth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteoufnesse.

6 Even as David also describeth the bleffednesse of the man unto whom God imputeth righteoufnesse without works,

7 Saying, Bleffed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.

8 Bleffed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute finne.

9 Cometh this bleffednesse thenupon the circumcifion onely, or upon the uncircumcifion alfo? for we fay that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteoulnesse.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcifion, but in uncircumcifion.

II And he received the figne of circumcifion, a seal of the righteousnesse of the faith, which be bad yet being uncircumcifed: that he might be the father of all them that believe. though they be not circumcifed; that righteonfnesse might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcifion to them who are not of the circumcifion onely, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcifed.

13 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his feed through the law, but through the righteousnesse of faith.

faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promife might be fure to all the feed, not to that onely which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

19 And being not weak in faith, he confidered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred yeare old, neither yet the deadnesse of Sara's wombe.

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was ftrong in faith, giving glory to God:

21 And being fully perswaded, that what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

22 Now it was not written for his fake alone, that it was imputed to him:

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raifed up Jefus our Lord from the dead,

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAP. V.

Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in out hope, 8 that fith we were reconciled by his blond, when we were enemies, 10 we shall much more be saved being reconciled. 12 As sinne and death came by Adam, 17 fo much more righteousnesse were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, and life by Jesus Christ. 20 1there sinne abounded, grace did superabound.

"Herefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 By whom also we have accesse by faith into this grace wherein we fland, and rejoyce in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not onely fo, but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh

4 And patience, experience; and experience,

And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is thed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, fin due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for 2 good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet finners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then being now justified by his bloud, we shal be saved from wrath through him to For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled so God by the death of his Sonne: much more being reconciled, we shall be faved by his life.

ir And not onely fo, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man finne entred into the world, & death by finne: and fo death paffed upon all men, | for that all have finned. || Or, in

14 Neverthelesse, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not finned after the similitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come:

But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one, many be dead; much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jefus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that finned, fo is the gift: for the judgement was by one to condemnation: but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

20 Moreover, the law entred, that the offence might abound: but where finne abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as fin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reigne through righteousnesse unto eternall life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

I we may not live in sinne, 2 for we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our baptisme-12 Let not sinne reigne any more, 18 because we have yeelded our felves to the service of righteousnesses, 23 and for that death is the wages of sinne.

Khat know the law) how that the law hath dominion over a man, as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband fo long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, the is loofed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if while her husband liveth, the be married to another man, the shall be calledan adulteresse: but if her husband be dead, the is free from that law; so that the is no adulteresse, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ, that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the † moti- † Gr. passions of sinnes which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, I that being dead wherein we were held, that [Or, being] we should serve in newnesse of spirit, and not dead to that, dained to life, I found to be unto death.

II For finne taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good, made death unto me? God forbid. But finnt that it might appeare finne, working death in me by that which is good: that finne by the commandment might become exceeding finfull.

14 For we know that the law is spirituall:

but I am carnall, fold under finne.

15 For that which I do, I † allow not; for † Gr. know. what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is good.

the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but finne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, after the inward man.

Here is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life, in Christ Jefus, hath made me free from the law of finne

For they that are after the flesh, do minde the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit; the things of the Spirit.

CHAP. X.

3 The Scripture Sheweth the difference betwixt the righteousnesse of the law, & this of faith, II and that all, both Jew and Gentile, that beleeve, shall not be confounded, 18 and that the Gentiles shall receive the word, and beleeve. 19 Ifrael was not ignorant of thefe things.

BRethren my hearts defire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be fayed.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

For they being ignorant of Gods righteoulnelle, and going about to establish their own righteousnesse, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousnesse of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousnesse to every one that believeth.

For Moles describeth the righteousnesse *Levit-18.5. Which is of the law, that * the man which doth Ezek. 20.11. those things, shall live by them. Gal.3.12.

6 But the righteoulnesse which is of faith, *Deut. 30. 12 speaketh on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is to bring Christ down from above )

7 Or who shall descend into the deep? (that is to bring up Christ again from the dead)

8 But what faith it? * The word is nigh *Deut.30.14 thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart : that is the word of faith which we preach,

. 9 That if thou thalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleeve in thine heart, that God hath raifed him from the dead, thou shalt be faved.

10 For with the heart man beleeveth unto righteoulnesse, and with the mouth confession is made unto falvation.

11 For the scripture faith, * Whosoever beleeveth on him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him,

12 * For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord, shall be faved:

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not beleeved? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

Say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite of the feed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture faith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, faying,

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of #Or,decay, or the world, and the | diminishing of them the

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh faints, and that ye affift her in whatfoever bufinesse she hath need of you: for the hath been a succourer of many, and of my self also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers

in Christ Jesus:

4 (Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not onely I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles )

Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my welbeloved Epenetus, who is the first-fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my kinfmen & my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. 8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kinde of flesh of men, another flesh of beafts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestiall bodies, and bodies terrestriall: but the glorie of the celestiall 17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is is one, and the glorie of the terrestriall is another.

spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is a spirituall body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living foul, the last Adam was made a quickning spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth earthy : the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, fuch are they that are earthy, and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have born the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I fay, brethren, that flesh and bloud cannot inherit the kingdome of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery: we shall not all fleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump : (for the trumpet shall found, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immor-where is thy victory ?

56 The fting of death is finne, and the ftrength of finne is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jelus Christ.

78 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye ftedfaft, unmoveable, alwayes abounding in the work of the Lord, foralmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

The second epistle of Paul the apostle, to the ORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, by the comforts and deliverances which God had given bim, as in all bis afflictions, 8 so particularly in his late danger in Asia: 12 and calling both bis own conscience, and theirs to witnesse of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gofpel, 15 he excuseth his not coming to them, as proceeding not of lightnesse, but of but lenity towards them.

Aul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, & Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the Caints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jefus Chrift,

3 Bleffed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.

For as the fufferings of Christ abound in us. fo our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectuall in the enduring of the same sufferings, which wealfo fuffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your confolation and falvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing that as you are partakers of the fufferings, fo shall we be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not brethren have you ignorant of our trouble weh came to us in Afia, that we were preffed out of measure, above strength, infomuch that we despaired even of life.

9 But we had the | fentence of death in our felves, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God which raiseth the dead.

10 Who delivered us from fo great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver ws:

11. You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdome, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

33 For we write none other things unto you, then what you reade or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end.

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoycing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have a fecond | benefit :

16 And to paffe by you into Micedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightnesse? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is true, our | word toward wor, preach.

you, was not yea and nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay ,but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are year and in him amen, unto the glory of God by us,

2 t Now he which stablisheth us with you, in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God.

22 Who hath alfo fealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

22 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my foul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy : for by faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated per fon, 10even as bimself also upon bis true repentance bad forgiven him: 12 declaring withall why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the bappy successe which God gave to his preaching in all places.

Ut I determined this with my felf, that I Owould not come again to you in heavineffe.

2 For if I make you fory, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made fory by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came, I should have forrow from them of whom I ought to rejoyce, having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4For out of much affliction & anguish of heart. I wrote unto you with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part : that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this | punishment, which was inflitted of many. 7 So that contrarivvile, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, left perhaps fuch a one should be swallowed up with over. much forrow.

8 Wherefore I befeech you, that ye would confirm your love towards him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive alfo: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your lakes forgave I it, || in the perfon of Christ ;

11 Lest Saran should get an advantage of us : for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs gospel, and a doore was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God which alwayes causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sayour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God asweet savour of Christ, in them that are faved, and in them that perifb. 16 To the one we are the favour of death unto death; and to the other, the favour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which | corrupt the word of God : but as of fincerity, but as of God, in the fight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAP. III. I Lest their false teachers should charge him with vain-glory, he sheweth the faith and graces of the Corintbians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministery. 6 whereupon entring a comparison between the ministers of the law, and of the golpel, 12 be provetb that his ministery is fo farre the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious then the law of condemnation.

Owe begin again to commend our felves? Dor need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men.

3 For as much as ye are manifestly declared to be the epittle of Christ, ministred by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in sleshly tables of the heart.

4 And fuch truft bave we through Christ to God-ward.

Not that we are sufficient of our selves to 1082 think any thing as of our felves : but our fufficiency is of God.

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit : for the letter killeth, but the spirit || gi- ||Or,quiet-

7 But if the ministration of death written, and ingraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Ifrael could not fledfaftly behold the face of Moles, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spi-

But even unto this day, when Moles is 16 Nevertheleffe when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

For we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were diffolsed, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eterhall in the heavens.

2 For in this we grone earnestly, defiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven.

3 If so be that being clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do grone, being burdened : not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

Aving therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from all filthineffe of the flesh and spirit, perfe ding holinefle in the fear of God.

2 Receive us, we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

4 Great is my boldnesse of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you, I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyfull in all our tribulation.

For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every fide; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheleffe, God that comforterh those that are cast down, comforted us by the co-

7 And not by his coming onely, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your carnest defire, your mourning, your fervent minde toward me, fo that I rejoyced the more.

8 For though I made you fory with a letter. I do not repent, though I did repent for I perceive that the same epille made you fory

6 Insomuch that we desired Tirus, that ashe had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

8 For this thing I belought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weaknesse. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

1 He threatneth severitie, and the power of his apostlesbip against obstinate sinners: 5 and advising them to a trial of their faith,7 and to reformation of their sinnes before his voming, 11 he concludeth his epifle with a generall exhortation and a prayer.

His is the third time I am coming to you: in the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have finned, and to all other, that if I come again I will not spare:

3 Since ye feek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakneffe, yet he liveth by the power of God: for we also are weak in him, but we shall live with I Or, with him by the power of God toward you.

19 But other of the apossles saw I none, save James the Lords brother, 20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, 22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judea, which were in Christ.

23 But they had heard onely, That he which perfecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

x He shemeth when he went up again to serusalem, and for what purpose: 3 and that Titus was not circumcised: 11 and that heresisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why he and other, being sews, do beloeve in Christ to be justified by saith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in same, who are so justified.

Then fourteen yeares after, I went up again to Jerusalem, with Barnabas, and took Titus with me alfo.

2. And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but || privately to them || Or, finally, which were of reputation, left by any means I versally, should runne, or had runne in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcifed:

4. And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spie out our libertie, which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no not for an houre, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of thele, who feemed to be formewhat (whatfoever they were, it maketh no matter to me, God accepteth no mans person) for they who feemed to be formewhat, in conference added nothing to me.

7 But contrariwife, when they faw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter ;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who feemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we frould go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcifion.

10 Onely they would that we should remember the poore, the same which I also was forward to do.

II But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be 12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him, infomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their diffimulation.

14 But when I favy that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I faid unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jeyrs, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not finners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have beleeved in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if while we feek to be justified by Christ, we our selves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sinne? God for-

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make my self a transgressour.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ. Neverthelesse I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Sonne of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousnesse come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

I He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang upon the law. 6 They that beleeve are justified, 9 and bleffed with Abraham. 10 And this be sheweth by many reasons. Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that you, should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently fet forth, crucified among you?

2 This onely would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered | so many things in vain? | Or, so group if it be yet in vain.

7 He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing

6 Even as Abraham beleeved God, and it was || accounted to him for righteousnesse. Or, imputed

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham,

8 And the scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are bleffed with faithfull Abraham. 10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curle: for it is written, * Curled is every one that continueth not in all * Deut, 27. things which are written in the book of the 26. law to do them.

II But that no man is justified by the law in the fight of God, it is evident: for, * The just * Hab. 2,40 shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, * The * Levit, 18.5

man that doth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the lave, being made a curse for us: for it is written, * Curfed is every one that hangeth on * Deut 21.

14 That the blefling of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ: that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. 15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; though it be but a mans || covenant, yet if || Or, tellas it be confirmed, no man disanulleth, or addeth ment, thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his feed were the promises made. He faith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy feed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law which was foure hundred and thirty yeares after, cannot disanull, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then ferveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made, and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediatour.

20 Now a mediatour is not a mediatour of one, but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given

given which could have given life, verily righteousnesse should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sinne, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith, which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our school-mafler to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew, nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Chriff Jefus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IIII.

I We were under the law till Christ came, as the beir is under his gardian till he be of age. 5 But Christ freed us from the law: 7 therefore we are fervants no longer to it. 14 He remembreth their good will to him, and his to them, 22 and sheweth that we are the sonnes of Abraham by the free-woman.

Ow I say, that the heir as long as he is a childe, different nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all.

2 But is undercutours and governours, untill the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the il elements of the world:

4 But when the fulnesse of the time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a wo-man, made under the law,

5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of fonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a sonne; and if a sonne, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit, then when ye knew not God, ye did fervice unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye flagain to the weak and beggerly flelements, whereunto ye define again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeares.

11 I am afraid of you, left I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I befeech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are, ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my tempration which was in my flesh ye despited not, nor rejected, but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 | Where is then the bleffednesse you spake | Or, what of? for I bear you record, that if it had been was then, possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; onely use not liberty for an oceasion to the flesh, but by love ferve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: * Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy felf.

15 But if ye bite & devoure one another, take heed that ye be not confumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and If ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For the Besh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh, and these are contrary the one to the other : fo that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not

The epistle of Paul the apostle, to the ETHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

After the Salutation, 3 and thank seiving for the Ephelians, 4 he treateth of our ele-Hion, 6 and adoption by grace, II which is the true and proper fountain of mans salvation. 13 And because the height of this mysterie cannot easily be attained unto, 16 he prageth that they may come 18 to the full knowledge and 20 poffession thereof in Christ.

Aul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the faints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfullin Chrift Jesus :

2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jefus

Christ.

3 Bleffed be the God and Father of our Lord Jefus Chrift, who hath bleffed us with all fpi-Porthings ritual bleffings in heavenly | places in Christ:

> 4 According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love:

> Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will :

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace . wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

7 In whom we have redemption through his bloud, the forgivenesse of sinnes; according to theriches of his grace,

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in fall wildome and prudence:

9 Having made known unto us the mysterie of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in himself.

To That in the dispensation of the fulnesse of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in theaven;

and which are on earth, even in him: II In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predeffinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counfel of his own will: 12. That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first || trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye beleeved, ye were fealed with that holy Spirit of promife,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance. untill the redemption of the purchased possesfion, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the faints, the church, 23 Which is his bodie, the fulnesse of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

I By comparing what we were by 3 nature, with what we are 5 by grace, 10 he declareth, that we are made for good works ; and 13 being brought neare by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles and 12 forreiners in time past, but as 19 citizens with the faints, and the family of God.

in the fear of God.

22 Wives, fubmit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church, and he is the Saviour of the bodie.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the vives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it :

26 That he might sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church :

30 For we are members of his bodie, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joyned unto his wife, and they two shall be one fieth.

32 This is a great mysterie: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Neverthelesse, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife, even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her busband.

3 Let nothing be done through strife, or vain glory, but in lowlinesse of minde let each esteem other better then themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this minde be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a fervant, and was made in the | likenesse of men.

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the croffe.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name ;

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bove, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth :

II And that every tongue should confesse, that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father,

12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye have alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in my absence; work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

that day should overtake you as a thief,

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day : we are not of the night, nor of darknesse.

6 Therefore let us not sleep as do others: but let us watch and be fober.

The first epistle of Paul the apostle, to TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

I Timothie is put in minde of the charge which was given unto him by Paul, at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right use and end of the law. II Of faint Pauls calling to be an apostle, 20 and of Hymeneus and Alexander

Aul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jefus Christ, which is our hope;

2 Unto Timothie, my own Sonne in the faith: grace, mercy and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I belought thee to abide still at Ephefus when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach noother doctrine, 4 Neither give heed to fables, and endleffe genealogies, which minister questions, rather then edifying, which is in faith: fo do.

Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some having swerved, have turned afide unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawleffe and disobedient, for the ungodly and for finners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers & murderers of mothers, for manslayers, to For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankinde, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to found do-

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me: for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the ministery, 13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and injurious. But I obtained mercie, because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithfull faying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to fave finners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter beleeve on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King eternall, immortall, invisible, the onely wife God, behonour and glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, sonne Timothie, according to the propheties which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest warre a good warfare :

CHAP. IIII.

He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. 6 And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

Ow the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to feducing spirits, and doctrines of devils:

2 Speaking lies in hypocrifie, having their conscience seared with a hot iron:

Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of themwhich believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

I Christ Fesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so farre more excellent then the priests of Aarons order.

Or this Melchisedec king of Salem, priest of I the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the flaughter of the kings, and bleffed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being by interpretation king of righreousnesse, and after that also, king of Salem, which is, king of peace:

3 Without father, without mother, twithout descent, having neither beginning of dayes, nor end of life: but made like unto the Sonne of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now confider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

And verily they that are of the sonnes of Levi, who receive the office of the priefthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loyns of 6 But he whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and bleffed him that had the promifes.

7 And without all contradiction, the leffe is bleffed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes : but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witneffed that he liveth.

9 And as I may fo fay, Levi also who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loyns of his father when Melchisedee met him.

II If therefore perfection were by the Leviticall priesthood, (for under it the people received the lavy) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of.

15 And so after he had patiently endured he Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet farre more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another prieft,

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnall commandment, but after the power of an endlesse life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for

Hen verily the first covenant had also | ordinances of divine service, and a worldly fanctuarie,

4 Which had the golden cenfer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the chernbims of glory shadowing the mercy-feat: of which we cannot

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went alwayes into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high prieft alone once every yeare, not without bloud, which he offered for himself, and for the errours of the people.

23 It was therefore necessarie that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themfelves with better facrifices then thefe.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into heaven it felf, now to appeare in the presence of God for us.

CHAP. X.

I The weaknesse of the law-sacrifices. 10 The Sacrifice of Christs body once offered, 14 for ever hath taken away sinnes. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thank sgiving.

Or the law having a shadow of good things I to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered yeare by yeare continually, make the comers thereunto perfect.

3 But in those facrifices there is a remembrance again made of finnes every yeare.

4 For it is not possible that the bloud of bulls and of goats, should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he faith, Sacrifice and offering thou NOT, then haft wouldest not, but a body | hast thou prepared

9 Then faid he Lo, I come to do thy will,

(O God) He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily minifiring and offering oftentimes the same sacrisices which can never take away finnes.

12 But this man after he had offered one facrifice for finnes for ever, fat down on the right hand of God:

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footftool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

CH AP. CP. SECOND

I He describeth the person of Christ in whom we have eternall life by a communion with God: 5 to which we must adjoyn holinesse of life, to testifie the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to affureus of the forgivenesse of our sinnes by Christs death.

your joy may be full.

This then is the meffage which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkneffe avall.

7 But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another. and the bloud of Jefus Christ his Sonne cleanfeth us from all finne.

8 If we fay that we have no finne, we deceive our felves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confesse our sinnes, he is faithfull, and just to forgive us our finner, and to cleanse as from all unrighteousnesse.

10 If we fay that we have not finned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

He comforteth them against the sinnes of infirmity. 3 Rightly to know God, is to keep bis commandments, 9 to love our brethren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 we must beware of seducers: 20 from whose deceits the godly are fafe preserved by perseverance in faith and bolinesse of life.

Y little children, thefe things write I un-Averto you, that ye finne not. And if any man finne, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christiche righteous :

2 And he is the propitiation for our finnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 :And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that faith, I know him ; and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected : hereby know we that we ate in him.

6 He that faith he abideth in him, ought himselfalfo so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning:

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you : because the darknesse is past, and the true light

24 And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him! and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. HIII.

I He warneth them not to beleeve all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to trie them by the rules of the catholick faith: 7 and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

Eloved, beleeve not every spirit, but trie Dthe spirits whether they are of God : because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God : every Spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit that consesseth not that Jelus Christ is come in the flesh is nor of God: and this is that fpirit of antichrist, whereof you have heard that it should come, and even now already is it in the world.

4 Yeare of God, little children, and have overcome them : because greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

They are of the world : therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God : he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth nor us: hereby know we the Spirit of truth and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloved let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God, for God is love,

9 In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that we might live through him.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

And we have feen and do testifie, that the Father fent the Sonne to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confesse that Jesus is the Sonne of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God,

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love cafteth out fear : because fear hath torment : he that feareth, is not made perfect in love:

19 We love him : because he first loved us. 20 If a man fay, I love God, and hareth his brother, he is a liar : for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath feen, how can be love God whom he hath not feen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, love his brother

CHAP. V.

He that loveth God, loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments: 3 which to the faithfull are light, and not grievous. 9 Jesus is the Sonne of God, able to fave us, 14 and Hofoever beleeveth that Jesus is the V Christ, is born of God : and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his com-

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments, and his commandments are not grievous!

4 For whatfoever is born of God, overcometh the world, and this is the victorie that overcometh the world, even our faith.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, flood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cryed with a loud voice, faying, Salvation to our God which fixeth upon the throne, and unto the Lambe.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the foure beafts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen: Bleffing, and glory, and wildome, and thankfgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

I At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels had seven trumpets given them. 6 Foure of them found their trumpets, and great plagues follow. 3 Another angel putteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar.

Nd when he had opened the feventh feal, there was filence in heaven about the fpace of half an houre.

2 And I save the seven angels which stood before God, and to them were given feven trumpets.

And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden cenfer, and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all faints upon the so the prayers golden altar, which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the faints, afcended up before God, out of the angels hand.

And the angel took the cenfer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and call it inco the garth : and there were voices, and thundrings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the feven angels which had the feven trumpets, prepared themselves to found.

7 The first angel founded, and there followed hail, and fire mingled with bloud, and they were cast upon the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green graffe was buent up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was east imothe sea, and the third part of the sea became bloud:

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the fea, and had life, died, and the third part of the thips were destroyed,

10 And the third angel founded, and there fella great starre from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of warers:

xt And the name of the starre is called Wormwood, and the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel founded, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the starres, so as the third part of them was darkened: and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewife.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabiters of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to found.

3. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth, & unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power:

4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but onely those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five moneths: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those dayes shall men seek death. and shall not finde it, and shall defire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battel, and on their heads mere as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

2 And they had breaftplates, as it were breaftplaces of iron, and the found of their wings was as the found of chariots of many horles running to battel

14 Saying to the fixth angel which had the trumpet, Loofe the foure angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the foure angels were loofed, which were prepared | for an houre, and a day, and a moneth, and a yeare, for to flay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the armie of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thoufand : and I heard the number of them.

17. And thus I faw the horses in the vision, and them that fat on them, having breaftplates. of fire, and of jacinet, and brimstone, and the heads of the horfes were as the heads of lions, and out of their mouthes issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouthes.

10 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails, for their tails were like unto ferpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt,

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worfal. 115.4 thip devils, * and idols of gold and filver, and 135.15. braffe, and ftone, and of wood : which neither can fee, nor heare, nor walk ;

5 And the angel which I faw stand upon the fea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven and the things that therem are, and the earth and the things that therein are, and the sea and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

John eateth the book.

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to found, the mystes: rie of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his fervants the prophets.

8. And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and faid unto him, Give me the little book. And he faid unto me, * Take it, and eat it up, and it shall make * Ezek. 2. 8. thy belly bitter , but it shall be in thy mouth and 3.3. fyveet as hony.

dred with great admiration.

7 And the angel faid unto me, Wherefore didft thou marvel? I will tell thee the myffery of the woman, and of the beaft that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beaft that thou fawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bortomleffe pit, the earth shall wonder, (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world ) when they behold the beaft that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the minde which hath wifdome. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman fitteth.

10 And there are seven kings, five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

II. And the beaft that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the feven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou fawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdome as yet: but receive power as kings one houre with the beaft.

13 These have one minde, and shall give their power and strength unto the beaft.

14 These shall make warre with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall overcome them: *for he is x1. Tim. 6. Lord of lords, and King of kings, and they that 15. are with him, are called, and chosen, and Chap. 19.16 faithfull.

15 And he faith unto me, The waters which thou favvest, where the whore fitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and congues.

16 And

16 And the ten horns which thou fawest upon the beast, these shall hatethe whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall ear her stellhand burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdome unto the beaft, untill the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou faweit, is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Rabylon is fallen. 4. The people of God commanded to depart out of here. 9 The hings of the earth, 11 with the merchants and mariners, lament over her. 20 The faints rejoyce for the judgements of God upon her.

And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightned with his glory.

Or, power.

*Ifa. 47.8.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, hip.14,8 saying, *Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hatefull bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are wared rich through the || abundance of her delicacies.

4. And I heard another voice from heaven, faying, Come out of her my people, that ye be not partakers of her fignes, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For her finnes have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as the rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: in the cup which the hath filled, fill to her double.

ing,

16 And faying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and fearlet, and decked with gold, and precious frones, and pearls:

17 For in one houre fo great riches is come to nought. And every thip-mafter, and all the company in thips, and failers, and as many as trade by sea, stood afarre off,

18. And cryed when they faw the fmoke of her burning, faying, What city is like unto this great city ?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cryed, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, as that great city, wherein were maderich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costlinesses for in one houre is the made desolate.

20 Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apossles and prophets, for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a frone like a great militone, and east it into the fea, faying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and mulicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: and no craftchan, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a milstone shall be heard no more at all in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bride-groom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee; for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy socceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the bloud of prophets, and of faints, and of all that were flain upon the earth.

CHÁP. XIX.

I God it praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blond of his faints. 7 The marriage of the Lambe. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great flaughter.

Nd after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, faying, Alleluia, falvation, and glory, and honour, and power unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgements, for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the bloud of his fervants at her hand.

3 And again they faid, Alleluia : and her smoke role up for ever and ever.

4 And the foure and twenty elders, and the foure beafts fell down and worshipped God that fat on the throne, faying, Amen, Alleluia,

And a voice came out of the throne, laying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thundrings, faying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoyce, and give honour to him : for the marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her felf ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteoulnesse of faints.

9 And he faith unto me, Write, *Bleffed are they which are called unto the marriage-supper of the Lambe. And he faith unto me, These are the true fayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worthip him:and he faid unto me, * See thou do it not : I am thy fellow-fervant, and of thy brethren that have the testimonie of Jesus, worship God : for the testimonie of Jesus is the spirit of prophesie.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called faithfull and true, and in righteousnesse he doth judge and make warre.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns, and he had a name written that no man knew but he himself.

* And he was clothed with a vesture dipt in bloud, and his name is called, The word of 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp fword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron : and he treaderh the wine-presse of the siercenesse and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture, and on his thigh a name written, * KING OF KINGS, *Chap. 17. AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the fun, and he cried with a loud voice, faying to all the fovels that flie in the midst of heaven, Come and gather your selves together unto the supper of the great God :

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that fit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I favy the beatt, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to make warre against him that sation the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beaft was taken, and with him the falle propher that verought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beaft, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast 2live into a lake of fire burning with brimftone.

21 And the remnant were flain with the fword of him that fat upon the horse, which fword proceeded out of his mouth; and all the fovvls were filled with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan bound for a thousand yeares. 6 The first resurrection: they blessed that have part therein. 7 Satan let loofe again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devil caft into the lake of fire and brimstone. 12 The last and generall re-Currection.

Nd I faw an angel come down from hea-Aven, having the key of the bottomleffe pir, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon that old ferpent, which is the devil and Saran, and bound him a thousand yeares,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and that him up, and fer a feal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand yeares should be fulfilled: and after that, he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I faw thrones, and they fat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I favo the fouls of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worthipped the beaft, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand yeares.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again. untill the thousand yeares were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Bleffed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection : on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reigne with him a thouland yeares.

16 And the citie lieth foure-square, and the length is as large as the breadth : and he meafured the citic with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and fourtie and foure cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper, and the citie was pure gold, like unto clear glaffe.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jusper, the second saphire, the third a chalcedonie, the fourth an emerald.

Thou are the very comforter in all wo and diffresse:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse:
The fountain and the lively spring of joy celestiall:
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unction sprintuall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold, whereby Christs church doth stand:
In faithfull hearts writing thy law,
the singer of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God may stand in every place.

O holy Ghoft, into our wits fend down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to ferve God day and night,
Strength and stablish all our weaknesse,
so feeble and so frail:
That neither slesh, the world, nor devil, against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies faire from us, and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man i without grudge or distain.
And grant, O Lord, that thou being our leader and our guide,
We may eschew the snares of sinne, and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace good Lord grant we thee pray, That thou may st be our comforter at the last dreadfull day.
Of all strife and diffension,
O Lord, dissolve the bands;
And make the knots of peace and love throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know the Father most of might: That of his deare beloved Sonne we may attain the fight, And that with perfect faith also we may acknowledge thee, The Spirit of them both alway, one God in persons three.

Laud and praife be to the Father, and to the Sonne equall, And to the holy Spirit allo, one God coeternall. And praywe that the onely Sonne youchfafe his Spirit to fend To all that do profetie his name, unto the worlds end.

The bumble suit of a sinner. M1.

But onely thou whose aid I crave, whose mercy fill is press To ease all those that come to thee for succour and for rest.

And sith thou sees my restlesse eyes, my tears and grievous grone;

Attend unto my suit, O Lord, mark well my plaint and mone.

For finne hath fo enclosed me, and compast me about, That I am now remedilesse, if merey help not out. For mortall man cannot release, or mitigate this pain: Venite exultemus.

But even thy Chrift, my Lord and God, who for my finnes was slain. Whose bloudie wounds are yet to see, though not with mortall eye:

Yet do thy faints behold them all,
and fo I truft thall I.
Though finne doth hinder me a while,
when then that fee it good
I shall enjoy the fight of him, and see his wounds and bloud.

And as thine angels and thy faints do now behold the fame:
So truft I to poffeffe that place, with them to praise thy name.
But whilft I live here in this vale where finners do frequent,
Affift me ever with thy grace my finnes ftill to lament:

Lest that I tread the finners trace, and give them my coasens
To dwell with them in wickednesse, whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay, lest that I fall down state
And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my fuit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sinne,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy church and house of saints

Venite exultemus. Pfal. xcy.

To thank him for his benefits -Alwayes diffributing: Wherefore to him right joyfully In plad she become the God done

And that because that God alone.
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forfake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coafts
Of all the world for wide.
And with his lowing coursesance

And with his loving countenance.

He looketh every where:

And doth behold the tops of all The mountains farre and neare.

The fea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him.

And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all,

He is our God, our Lord, and King, And we his people are, His flock and sheep of his pasture, Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will heare his voice; Then harden not your heart, As in the bitter murmuring, When ye were in defert.

Which thing was of their negligence Committed in the time Of trouble in the wildernesse, A great and grievous crime. Whereas your fathers tempted me And tri'd me every way : They proved me, and saw my works,

What I could do or fay,

These fourty yeares I have been griev'd
With this generation:
And evermore I said, they err'd
In their imagination:

Wherewith their hearts were fore cumbred Long time and many dayes. Wherefore I faid, Affiredly They have not known my wayes.

To whom Pin my anger fwore,
That they should not be bleft,
Nor see my joy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

All laud and praife be to thee, Lord,
O that of might art most,
To God the Eather, and the Sonne, and to the holy Ghost.

And alfo his anointed king,
As we in feripture finde.
As by his holy prophets all
Oft-times he did declare,
The which were fince the world began,

That we might be delivered From those that make debate, Our enemies, and from the hands Of allthat do us hate.

His wayes for to prepare.

The mercie which he promised Our fathers to fulfill, And think upon his covenant made According to his will.

And also to perform the eath Which he before had sworn To Abraham our father deare, For us that were forlorn:

That he would give himself for us And us from bondage bring Out of the hands of all our foes, To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear, And eke in rightcoulneffe: And also for to lead our lives In stedfast holinesse.

And thou, O childe, which now art born, And of the Lord elect, Shalt be the prophet of the High's, His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face For to prepare his wayes, And also for to teach his will And pleasure all thy dayes.

To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is neare: And that remission of their sinnes Is through his mercy meer.

Whereby the day-fpring from on high Is come us for to vifit, And those for to illuminate Which do in darknesse sit.

will attain, The catholick belief he muft before all things retain. Which faith unlesse he wholly keep, and undefiledly, Without all doubt eternally he shall be sure to die.

The catholick belief is this, that God we worthip one.
In trinitie, and trinitie in unitie alone:
So as we neither do confound the perfons of the three,

Nor yet the Substance whole of one in Sunder parted be.

One person of the Father is, another of the Sonne, Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone.

Of Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost, but one the Godhead is:
Like glorie, coeternall eke

Such as the Father is, fuch is the Sonne in each degree, And fuch also we do beleeve the holy Ghost to be.

the majestie likewise.

Uncreate is the Father, and uncreate is the Sonne, A 4

The

The holy Ghost uncrease, so uncrease is each one.

Incomprehenfible Father is, incomprehenfible Sonne, And comprehenfible also is the holy Ghoft of none. The Father is eternall, and the Sonne eternall so, And in like fort eternall is the holy Ghoft also.

And yet though we beleeve that each of these eternall be:
Yet there but one eternall is, and not eternals three.
As ne incomprehensible we, ne yet uncreate three,
But one incomprehensible, one uncreate hold to be,

Almighty fo the Father is,
the Sonne Almighty fo,
And in like fort Almighty is the holy Ghost alfo,
And albeit that every one of these Almighty be;
Yet there but one Almighty is,
and not Almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghoft alfo;
Yet are there not three Gods in all, but one God, and no mo.
So likewife Lord the Father is, and Lord alfo the Sonne, And Lord the holy Ghoft: yet are there not three Lords, but one.

For as we are compelled to grant by Christian veritie, Each of the persons by himself both God and Lord to be: So catholick religion forbiddeth us alway, That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three, to say.

Of none the Father is, he made, no create, nor begor;
The Sonne is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got;
The holy Ghoft is of them both the Father and the Sonne;
Ne made, ne create, nor begor, but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three, one Some allo, not three; One holy Ghoft alone, and not three holy Ghofts to be. None in this trinitic before. nor after other is: Ne greater any then the reft, ne lesser be likewise.

But every one among themselves of all the persons three; Together coeternall all, and all coequall be. So unitie in trinitie, as said it is before, And trinitie in unitie in all things we adore.

Therefore what man foever that falvation will attain,
This faith touching the trinitie of force he must retain.
And needfuld to eternall life it is, that every wight
Of the incarnating of Christ our Lord believe aright.

For this the right faith is, that we beleeve and eke do know,
That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God is God and man allo:
God of his Fathers substance got

And of his mothers substance born in world a very man,

Both perfect God and perfect man in one, one Jelus Christ: That doth of reasonable soul and humane steff subsist. Touching his Godhead, equall with his Father God is he: Touching his manhood, lower then his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone, and is not perfore two.
One, nor by turning of Godhead into the flesh of man;
But by taking manhaod to God, this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the fub flance into one ;
But onely by the unitie, that is of one person.
For a the reasonable foul and then but one man is:
So if one person God and man is but one Christ like wife.

Nor shalt them serve; the Lord thy God, a jealous God am I,
That punish parents faults unto the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love, and my precepts obey.

The name thou of the Lord thy God in vain thalt never use:
For him that takes his name in vain the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep the facred fabbath-day:
Six dayes thou labour thalt, and do thy needfull works alway:

The seventh day is set by the Lord thy God to rest upon;
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy sonne,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse,
Nor stranger that within thy gates hath his abiding place:

For in fix dayes God heaven and earth, and all therein did make,
And after those his reft he did upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he bleft the day that he for resting did ordain,
And sacred to himself alone appointed to remain.

Yeeld honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy dayes may be Upon the land the which the Lord thy God hath given thee. Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal. Nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.

The complaint of a finner.

Butif it be thy will
With finners to contend,
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sinners not in thy sight
Full oft and every day?

The scripture plain tells me, The righteous man offendeth Seven times a day to thee, Whereon thy wrath dependeth: So that the righteous man Doth walk in no such path, But he falls now and than In danger of thy wrath.

Then fith the case so stands, That even the man right wise. Falls oft in sinfull bands, Whereby thy wrath may rise; Lord, I that am unjust, And righteousnesse none have, Whereto then shall I trust My sinfull soul to save, But truly to that polt Whereto I cleave and shall,
Which is thy mercy most?
Lord, let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy bloud,
Wherein mercy I call.

The feripture doth declare
No drop of bloud in thee,
But that thou didft not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet.
So mosist my heart so dry,
That I with sinne replete,
May live, and sinne may die:

That being mortified
This finne of mine in me,
I may be fanctified
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into fuch mortall finne,
That my foes infernall
Rejoyce my death therein.

But vouchfafe me to keep From thofe infernall foes, And from that lake fo deep, Whereas no mercy grows. And I shall fing the fongs Confirmed with the just, That unto thee belongs, Which art mine onely trust.

The Pfalmes of DAVID in metre.

Beatus vir. Pfal. i. T.S.

This pfalme is fet first as a preface, to exhort all godly men to studie and medicate the heavenly wisdome: for they be blessed that so do: but the wicked contemners thereof at length shall come to misery.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows fast by the rivers side: Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit in his due time and tide, day and night.

Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall, but flourish still and stand: Even so all things shall prosper well, that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men; they shall be nothing so: But as the dust which from the earth the winde drives to and fro.

5 Therefore shall not the wicked men in judgement stand upright: Nor yet the sinners with the just shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly menunto the Lordis known: And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

Quare fremuerunt, Pfal: ii. T.S.

David rejoyceth, that albeit enemies and worldly power rager, God will advance his kingdome, even to the farthest end of the world: therefore he exhortesh princes humbly to submit themselves under the same, Herein is signified christ and his kingdome.

Sing this as the first psalme.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raile, what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vain?
The kings and rulers of the earth conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Sonne, which he among us sent,

3 Shall

3 Shall we be bound to them? fay they; let all their bonds be broke :

And of their doctrine and their law let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heaven dwells, their doings will deride :

And make them all as mocking-flocks, throughout the world fo wide.

For in his wrath the Lord will fay to them upon a day :

And in his furie trouble them, and then the Lord will fay,

6 I have anointed him my king upon my holy hill:

I will therefore, Lord, preach thy law, and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wife the Lord himfelf did fay to me I wor,

Thou art my deare and onely Sonne, to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee, as heirs at thy request :

The ends and coasts of all the earth by thee shall be possest.

o Thou shalt them bruise even with a mace, as men under foot trod :

And as the potters therds, thalt break them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O kings and rulers all, be wife therefore and learn'd,

By whom the matters of the world be judged and discern'd.

II See that ye serve the Lord above in trembling and in fear : See that with reverence ye rejoyce to him in like manner. 12 See that ye kiffe and eke embrace his bleffed Sonne, I fay, Left in his wrath ye fuddenly perish in the mid-way.

12 If once his wrath never fo fmall shall kindle in his breaft :

O then all they that truft in Christ shall happie be and blest.

Domine quid. Pfal. III. T. S.

David driven out of his kingdome by his fonne Absalom, was greatly tormented in minde for his finne. Therefore he calleth upon God, and is bold in his promises against the terrour both of enemies & prefent death. Then he rejoyceth for the victorie given to him and the church, over their enemies.

I did both call and cry :

And he out of his holy hill did heare me by and by.

5 I laid me down, and quietly I slept and rose again :

For why ? I know affuredly the Lord will me sustain.

6 If ten thousand had hemm'd me in-I could not be afraid:

For thou art still my Lord and God, my Saviour and mine aid.

Rife up therefore, save me, my God, for now to thee I call:

7 For thou haft broke the cheeks and teeth of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee, O Lord above :

Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy bleffing and thy love.

Cilm invocarem. Pfal. IIII. T. S.

David perfecuted by Saul, calleth upon God with affured truft, reproveth his enemies for refisting his dominion, and preferreth the favour of God before all treasure. Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

God that art my righteoufneffe, Lord heare me when I call: Thou haft fet me at libertie, when I was bound and thrall.

2 Have mercy, Lord, therefore on me; and grant me my request : For unto thee uncestantly to cry I will not reft.

3 O morrall men how long will ye my glorie thus despile?

Why wander ye in vanitie, and follow after lies?

4 Know ye that good and godly men the Lord doth take and chuse:

And when to him I make my plaint, he doth me not refuse.

Siane

5 Sime not but stand in aw therefore, examine well your heart:

And in your chamber quietly fee you your felves convert.

6 Offer to God the facrifice of righteoutnesse, I say:
And look that in the living Lord

And look that in the living Lord you put your trust alway.

7 The greater fort crave worldly goods, and riches do embrace:

But Lord grant us thy countenance, thy favour and thy grace.

8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart more joyfull and more glad,

Then they that of their corn and wine full great increase have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I, taking my reft and fleep: For thou onely wilt me, ⊕ Lord, alone in fafety keep.

Verbamea auribus. Pfal. v. T. S.
David persecuted by Doeg and Achitophel, Sauls statterers, calleth upon God to purish their malice. Then assured of successe, he conceived comfort.

Sing this as the 3 plaime.

Neline thine cares unto my words,
O Lord my plaint confider:

2 And heare my voice my King, my God, to thee I make my prayer.

3 Heare me betime, Lord tarry not, for I will have respect,

My prayer early in the morn to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience in thee my God alone : Thou art not pleased with wickedness

Thou art not pleas'd with wickednesse, and ill with thee dwells none.

5 And in thy fight shall never stand these furious sools, O Lords Vain workers of iniquitie thou hast alwayes abhorr'd,

6 The liars and the flatterers, thou shalt destroy them than: And God will hate the bloud-thirstie, and the deceitfull man.

7 Therefore will I come to thine house, trusting upon thy grace:

And reverently will worship thee toward thine holy place.

3 Lord lead me in thy righteoufneffe, for to confound my foes: And eke the way that I shall walk before my face dischole.

for in their mouthes there is no truth, their heart is foul and vain:

Their throat an open sepulchre, their tongues do glose and fain.

that they may come to nought: Subvert them in their heaps of finne, which have rebellion wrought.

It But those that put their trust in thee, let them be glad alwayes:

And render thanks for thy defence, and give thy name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous stills
And with the grace, as with a shield

And with thy grace, as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Plat. vi. T.S.

David for his finnes felt Gods hand and conceived the horrour of everlafting death.

Therefore he defireth forgivenesse, and not to die in Gods indignation. Then suddenty feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his encembes, who rejoyced at his affliction.

Sing this as the first of alme.

Ord in thy wrath reprove me not, though I deserve thine ire:
No yet correct me in thy rage,

O Lord, I thee defire.

For I am weak, therefore O'I

2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord, of mercieme forbear:
And heal me, Lord, for why? thou knows?

my bones do quake for fear,

3 My foul is troubled very fore, and vexed vehemently: But Lord how long wilt thou delay to cure my milerie?

A Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace, my filly foul up take:

O fave me, not for my deferts, but for thy mercies fake.

For why? no man among the dead remembreth thee one whit:

Or who shall worship thee, O Lord, in the infernall pit?

6 So grievous is my plaint and mone, that I wax wondrous faint:

All the night long I wash'my bed with tears of my complaint.

7 My fight is dimme, and waxeth old with anguish of my heart,

For fear of those that be my foes, and would my soul subvert.

8 But now away from me all ye ... that work iniquitie:

For why? the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and crie.

9 He heard not onely the request and prayer of my heart;

Plalme vii. Viii.

But it received at my hands, and took it in good part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me the Lord will foon defante:
And fuddenly confound them all, to their rebuke and flame.

Domine Deus meus. Pfal, vit. T.S.

David falfly accused by Chus Sauls kinsman, calleth to God to be his desender. First, for that his conscience did not accuse him of any evil toward Sauls next, that it touched Gods glory to award sentence against the wicked: and so upon Gods mercies and promises he waxeth bold, threatning that it shall fall on their own necks, which his enemies purposed for others.

Sing this as the 3 psalme.

O Lord my God, I put my trust and confidence in thee: Save me from them that me pursue, and eke deliver me.

2 Left like a lion he me tear and rend in pieces small, While there is none to succour me and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done the thing that is not right, Or else if I be found in fault, or guilty in thy fight: 4 Or to my friend rewarded ill, or left him in diffresse,

Which me purfu'd most cruelly, and hated me causelesse:

Then let my foes purfue my foul, and ekemy life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Start up, O Lord, now in thy wrath, and put my foes to pain: Perform the kingdome promifed so me which wrong sustain.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee, and know thee by this thing,

If thou declare, for love of them, thy felf as Lord and King.

8 And as thou art of all men judge,
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteoufnesse.

According to my righteousnesse, and mine integritie. The second part.

 9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men, and be the just mans guide:
 10 By whom the secrets of all hearts are searched and descri'd.

11 I take my help to come of God, in all my pain and smart,

That doth preserve all those that be of pure and perfect heart.

12 The just man and the wicked both God judgeth by his power: So that he feels his mighty hand even every day and house.

for even as he should smite,

He whets his fword, his bow he bends, aiming where he may his.

14. And doth prepare his mortall darts, his arrows keen and sharp,

For them that do me perfecute, whiles he doth mischief warp.

of his devilish forecast,

And of his mischief once conceived

And of his mischief once conceiv'd, yet brings forth nought at last.

16 He digs a dirch and delves it deep, in hope to hurthis brother:

But he shall fall into the pit that he digg'd up for other.

of him in whom it bred,

And all the mischief that he wrought shall fall upon his head.

18 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteoufly, And with my Copy will praife the name

And with my fong will praise the name of him that is most high,

Domine Deus noster. Psal. viii. T.S.
The prophet confidering the excellent liberality & fatherly providence of God towards man, whom he made as it were a God over all his works giveth thanks and is aftonied with the admiration of the same.

Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

God our Lord, how wonderfull are thy works every where,
Whose fame surmounts in dignitic above the heavens clear!

2 Even by the mouth of fucking babes thou wilt confound thy foes: For in those babes thy might is seen,

For in those babes thy might is seen, thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I fee the heavens high, the works of thine own hand; The funne, the moon, and all the starres, in order as they stand:

4 What thing is man, Lord, think I then,

that thou dost him remember?

Or what is mans posterity, that thou dost it consider?

5 For thou hast made him little lesse then angels in degree:

And thou haft crowned him also with glory and dignitie.

6 Thou haft preferr'd him to be lord of all thy works of wonder:

And

And at his feet haft fet all things, that he should keep them under.

7 As sheep, and neat, and all beafts else, that in the fields do feed:

8 Fowls of the aire, fish in the sea, and all that therein breed. 9 Therefore must I say once again,

O God that art our Lord, How famous and how wonderfull are thy works through the world!

Confitebor tibi Domine, Pfal. ix. T.S.

David giveth thanks for his manifold vittories received, desireth the same wonted help again, against his new enemies, and their malicious arrogancie to be destroyed.

Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

Ith heart and mouth unto the Lord will I fing laud and praife:
And fpeak of all thy wondrous works, and them declare alwayes,
2 I will be glad and much rejoyce in thee, O God most high:

And make my fongs extoll thy name above the starrie skie.

3 For that my foes are driven back and turned unto flight: They fall down flat and are deftroy'd by thy great power and might.

4 Thou haft revenged all my wrong, my grief and all my grudge: Thou doft with justice heare my cause Thou dost with justice heare my cause, most like a righteous judge.

5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk, and wicked so confound, That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.

3 For

Platitic XI. All.

3 For in the luft of his own heart th' ungodly doth delight: So doth the wicked praife himfelf, and doth the Lord delpight.

4. He is so proud that right and wrong he setteth all apart:

Nay, nay, there is no God, faith he, for thus he thinks in heart.

Because his wayes do prosper still, he doth thy laws neglect,

And with a blaft doth puff against such as would him correct.

6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread, lest mine estate should change:

And why? for all advertistic to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of cursednesse, of fraud, deceit, and guile: Under his tongue doth mischief sit, and travail all the while.

8. He lieth hid in wayes and holes to flay the innocent:

Against the poore that passe him by his cruel eyes are bent.

9 And like a lion privily lies lurking in his den, If he may finare them in his net, to spoil poore simple men.

And for the nonce full craftily he croucheth down, I say:

1,1 So are great heaps of poore men made by his strong power, his prey. The second part.

12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he, therefore I may be bold:

His countenance is cast aside, he doth it not behold.

#3 Arife, O Lord, O God, in whom the poore mans hope doth reft:

Lift up thy hand, forget not, Lord, the poore that be opprest.

Lord, dost theu not abhorre it,

To heare the wicked in their heart fay, Tuth, thou car'ft not for it?

and well doft understand

That friendlesse and poore father lesse are left into thy hand.

17 Of wicked and malicious men then break the power for ever,

That they with their iniquitie may perishaltogether.

as King and God alone,

And he will chase the heathen folk out of the land each one.

19 Thouhear'st, O Lord, the poor mens plaint their prayers and request:

Their hearts thou wile confirm, until thine eares to heare be preft: 20 To judge the poore and fatherleffe, and help them to their right; That they may be no more oppreft by men of worldly might.

In Domino confido. Pl.A. xi. T. S.
This pfalme sheweth, first, what assaults of temptation, and anguish of minde he sustained in perfecution. Next, he rejoyceth that God sent him succour in necessity, declaring his sustice, as well in governing the good and wicked men, as the whole world.

Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

I Trust in God, how dare ye then fay thus my foul untill, Flie hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill?

Behold, the wicked bend their bows;
and make their arrows prest
To shoot in secret, and to hure

the found and harmleffe breaft,

3 Of worldly hope all stayes were strunk, and clearly brought to nought;

Alas, the just and righteous man, what evil hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high, And in the heavens hath his seat of royall majestie,

The poore and simple mans estate considereth in his minde, And searcheth out full narrowly the manners of mankinde.

5 And with a cheerfull countenance
the righteous man will use:

But in his heart he doth abhorre all such as mischief muse.

6 And on the finners caffeth finares as thick as any rain,

Fire and brimstone, and whirlwindes thick, appointed for their pain.

7 Ye see then how a righteous God doth righteousnesse embrace. And to the just and upright men shews forth his pleasant face.

Salvum me fac. Psal. xii. T.S.
The prophet seeing the miserable decay of all good order despreth God speedily to send reformation. Then comforted with the assurance of Gods help and promises conclude th that when all orders are most corrupted, then God will deliver his.

Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

Help, Lord, for good and godly men do perith and decay:

And faith and truth from worldly men is parted clean away. 2 Whole

Whole dethanish himsiatt

2 Whoso doth with his neighbour talk, his talk is all but vain: For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and feigne.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips, and tongues that be fo flour To freak proud words and make group

To speak proud words and make great brags, the Lord soon cuts them out.

4 For they fay still, We will prevail, our tongues shall us extol:

Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak; what Lord shall us controll?

But for the great complaint and crie of poore and men oppreft,

Arife will I now, faith the Lord, and them restore to rest.

6 Gods word is like to filver pure, that from the earth is tri'd, And hath no leffe then feven times in fire been purifi'd.

7 Now fith thy promife is to help, Lord, keep thy promife then: And fave us now and evermore from this ill kinde of men.

For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,

When vanitie with worldly men fo highly is extold.

Usquequo Domine. Psal. xiii, T.S.
David as it were overcome with afflictions, flieth to God his onely refuge; and encouraged through Gods promises, he consciveth considence against the extreme horrours of death.

Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

How long wile thou forget me, Lord, shall I ne're be remembred?

How long wile thouthy visage hide, as though thou wert offended?

In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be? How long eke shall my deadly for thus triumph over me?

3 Behold me now, my Lord my God, and heare me fore oppress, Lighten mine eyes, lest that I steep as one by death possess:

4 Lest that mine enemie say to me,
behold, I do prevail:

Lest they also that hate my soul, rejoyce to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercie and goodnesse my hope shall never start: In thy relief and saving health right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord, and praifes to him fing: Because he hath heard my request, and granted my wishing. Dixit insipiens. Plal. xiiii. T. S.

He describeth the wickednesse of men grown to such licentiousnesse, that God was brought to utter contempt: for which albeit he was greatly grieved, yet persuaded that God would redresse it, he is comforted.

Sing this as the 3 platme.

There is no God, as foolish men affirm in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.

The Lord beheld from heaven high the whole race of mankinde.
And faw not one that fought indeed

And faw not one that fought indeed the living God to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt, and truly there was none

That in the world did any good, I fay there was not one.

4 Is all their judgement fo farre loft, that all work mischief still, Eating my people even as bread.

Eating my people even as bread, not one to feek Gods will?

5 When they thus rage, then fuddenly great fear on them shall fall:

For God doth love the righteous men, and will maintain them all,

6 Ye mock the doings of the poores to their reproch and shame:
Because they put their trust in God

Because they put their trust in God, and call upon his name.

7 But who shall give thy people health, and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel from out of Sion hill ?

8 Even when thou shalt restore again such as were captive led,

Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce, and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T. S.

Here is taught why God chose the Jews to be his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them; which was that they by living uprightly, might witnesse that they were his speciall and holy people.

Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

Clord within thy tabernacle who shall inhabit still?

Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell in thy most holy hill?

2 The man whose life is uncorrupt, whose works are just and straight: Whose heart doth think the very truth, whose tongue speaks no deceit,

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill in bodie, goods, or name, Nor willingly doth movefalse tales, which might empair the same.

Plaime XVI. XVII.

That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord he maketh much of them.

s His oath and all his promifes that keepeth faithfully, Although he make his covenant fo that he doth lofe thereby,

6 That putteth not to usurie his money and his coyn,

Ne for to hurt the innocent doth bribe or else purloyn.

7 Whoso doth all things as you see that here is to be done, Shall never perish in this world, nor in the world to come.

Conserva me. Psal. xvi. T.S.

David prayeth to God for succour, not for his works, but for his faiths sake, protesting that he hateth all ideal ries, taking God onely for his comfort and felicitie, who suffere eth his to lack nothing.
Sing this as the 3 psalme.

Ord keep me; for I trust in thee, and do confesse indeed
Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no need.

2 I give my goods unto the faints that in the world do dwell, And namely to the faithfull flock in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heap forrows on their heads, which dun as they were mad,

To offer to the idol gods, alas it is too bad.

4 As for their bloudie factifice and offerings of that fort, I will not rouch, nor yet thereof my lips shall make report.

For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance: And thou art he that doft maintain my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,

in beautie did excell:
Mine heritage affign'd to me
doth pleafe me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me to understand the right:

For by his means my fecret thoughts do teach me every night.

If fer the Lord still in my light, and trust him over all:

For he doth stand on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together My flesh and bodie rest in hope, when I this thing consider. To Thou wile not leave my soul in grave, for Lord thou lovest me:

Nor yet wilt give thy holy one corruption for to fee.

for all treasure and flore

Of perfect joy are in thy face, and power for evermore.

Exaudi Domine. P(al. xvii. T. S.

Here be complained to God of the cruel pride and arrogancie of Saul, who raged without any cause: therefore he destreth God to revenge his innocencie and deliver him.

Sing this as the 3 pfalme.

Clord give eare to my just cause, attend when I complain:

And heare the prayer that I put forth with lips that do not feigne.

2 And let the judgement of my cause proceed alwayes from thee:

And let thine eyes behold and clear this my fimplicitie.

3 Thou hast well tri'd me in the nights and yet couldst nothing finde

That I have spoken with my tongue that was not in my minde.

4. As for the works of wicked men and paths perverse and ill,

For love of thy most holy name,

I have refrained still.

Then in thy paths that be most pure stay me, Lord, and preserve:

That from the way wherein I walk my steps may never swerve.

6 For I do call to thee, O Lord, furely thou wilt me aid:

Then heare my prayer, and weigh right well the words that I have faid.

7 Othou the Saviour of all them that put their truft in thee,

Declare thy firength on them that spurm against thy majestie.

8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep the apple of thine eye:

And under covert of thy wings defend me fecretly

The fecond part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me

And from my foes that go about my foul for to deftroy:

Which wallow in their worldly wealth,

fo full and eke fo fat,

That in their pride they do not spare to speak they care not what.

II They

They lie in wait where I should passe, with craft me to confound:

And musing mischief in their mindes, to cast me to the ground.

Much like a lion greedily that would his prey embrace

Or lurking like a lions whelp within some secret place.

13 Up Lord in haste, prevent my foe, and cast him at thy feet:

Save thou my foul from the ill man, and with the fword him smite.

14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy power out of these tyrants hands: Which now so long time reigned have.

Which now so long time reigned have, and kept us in their bands.

I mean from worldly men, to whom all worldly goods are rife,

That have no hope nor part of joy but in this present life.

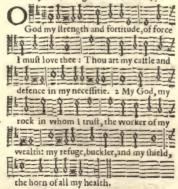

16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st with pleasure to their minde:

Their children have enough, and leave to theirs the rest behinde.

17 But I shall with pure conscience behold thy gracious face: So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Dom. Pfal. xviii. T. s.

David giveth thanks entring into his kingdome, extolling the marvellous graces of God in his prefervation: berein is the image of Chrifts kingdome, which shall conquer through Chrift, by the unspeakable love of God, though all the world resist.

3 When I fing laud unto the Lord most worthy to be served, Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserved, 4 The pangs of death did compaffe me, and bound me every where: The flowing waves of wickednesse did put me in great fear.

'5 The flie and subtile snares of hell were round about me ser: And for my death there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus belet with pain and grief, did pray to God for grace:

And he forthwith did heare my plaine out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power that in his wrath he made the earth to quake,

Yea the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his noffrils came a smoke when kindled was his ire:

And from his mouth came kindled coals of hot confuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above, and bow'd the heavens high;

And underneath his feet he cast the darknesse of the skie.

10 On cherubs and on cherubims full royally he rode:

And on the wings of all the windes came flying all abroad.

The second part.

And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:

With waters black and airie clouds environed he was.

in brightnesses and in their stee

Then clouds consume, and in their stead come hail and coals of sire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts disperse them here and there:

And with his often lightenings he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy law and threatenings, and at thy chiding chear,

The springs and the foundations of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord fent down to fetch me from below,

And pluckt me out of waters great, that would me overflow.

16 And me delivered from my foes that would have made me thrall: Yea from fuch foes as were too strong for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppresse in time of my great grief: But yet the Lord was my defence, my succour and relief. Plalme xviii.

18 He brought me forth in open place, whereas I might be free, And kept me fafe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent, fo did he me regard,

And to the cleannesse of my hands he gave me my reward:

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his paths have trod,

And have not wavered wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third part.

21 But evermore I have respect to his law and decree:

His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt appear'd before his face,

And did refrain from wickednesse and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward, as I have done aright:

And to the cleannesse of my hands, appearing in his sight.

24 For, Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy too,

And with the good and vertuous men right vertuoufly wilt do.

25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt referve:

And thou wilt use the wicked men as wicked men deserve.

26 For thou doft fave the simple folk in trouble when they lie, And doft bring down the countenance

And dost bring down the countenance of them that look full high.

27 The Lord will light my candle to that it shall shine full bright:

The Lord my God will make also my darknesse to be light.

28 For by thy help an host of men discomfit, Lord, I shall:

By thee I scale and overleap the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the wayes of God, his word is purely tri'd:

He is a fure defence to fuch as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord? for other there is none:

Or else who is omnipotent, faving our God atone?

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength, is he that I do mean,

That all the wayes wherein I walk did evermore keep clean. And for my furety brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands in swifnesse of my pace,

32 That made my feet like to the harve

33 He did in order put my hands to battel and to fight:

To break in funder barres of braffe he gave mine arms the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy faving health, thy right hand is my tower:

Thy love and familiaritie doth still increase my power.

35 And under me thou makest plain the way where I should walk,

So that my feet shall never slip, nor stumble at a balk.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me annoy'd:

And from the field do not return till they be all deftroy'd.

37 So I suppresse and wound my foes, that they can rise no more:

For at my feet they fall down flat, I strike them all so sore,

38 For thou dost gird me with thy strength to warre in such a wife,

That they be all scattred abroad that up against me rise.

39 Lord thou hast put into my hands my mortall enemies yoke:

And all my foes thou dost divide in funder with thy stroke.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave care, nor holp them with relief:

Yea to the Lord they call'd for help, yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth part.

And fill like dust before the winde
I drive them under feet,

And fweep them out like filthy clay

42 Thou keepst me from seditious folk, that still in strife are led:

And thou doft of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknown, and yet they shall me serve;

And at the first obey my word, whereas mine own will swerve.

44 I shall be irksome to mine own, they will not see my light:

But wander wide out of the way, and hide them out of fight.

45 But bleffed be the living Lord, most worthy of all praise, That is my rock and saving health, praised be he alwayes.

46 For

David in the person of the people praiseth God for the wittery given them against the Syrians and Ammonites, 2.Sam.10, wherein he was crowned with the crown of the king of Ammon, 2. Sam. 12. and endued with the manifold blessings of GOD.

Sing this as the 18 pfalme.

Clord how joyfull is the king in thy strength and thy power!

How whemently doth he rejoyce in thee his Saviour!

'2 For thou hast given unto him his godly hearts defire:

To him nothing thou hast deni'd of that he did require.

3 Thou didlt prevent him with thy gifts and bleffings manifold,

And thou hast see upon his head a crown of perfect gold.

And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou mad'ft him sure,

To have long life, yea such a life as ever shill endure.

Great is his glory by thy help, thy benefit and aid:

Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

And helpeft not when I do make my great complaint and crie?
To thee my God even all day long

I do both crie and call:

I cease not all the night, and yet thou hearest not at all.

3 Even thou that in thy fanctuary and holy place doft dwell,

Thouart the comfort and the joy, and glory of Israel:

4 And he in whom our fathers old had all their hope for ever:

And when they put their trust in thee, thou didst them ay deliver.

5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy name:

And for the faith they had in thee they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worm more like then any man: An outcast whom the people form

30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply thy righteoulnesse to praise:

Unto the Lord my God will I fing laud and praise alwayes.

Dixit injustus. Psal. XXXVI. J. H. David vexed by the wicked, complaineth of their malice; but considering Gods great mercy to all creatures, especially towards his children, by faith therefore he is comforted and assured of his deliverance. Sing this as the humble suit of a sinner.

The wicked with his works unjust doth thus perswade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust, his fear is fet apart.

2 Yet doth he joy in his estate, to walk as he began, So long till he deserve the hate of God and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught, his tongue no truth doth tell:

Yet at no hand will he be taught which way he may do well.

4 When he should sleep, then doth he muse his mischiefs to fulfill:

No wicked wayes doth he refuse, nor nothing that is ill.

5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend above the heavens high:

So doth thy truth it felf extend unto the cloudy skie.

6 Much more then hills fo high and steep, thy justice is exprest:

Thy judgements like to feas most deep, thou sav'st both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is above all things, O God it doth excell: In trust whereof, as in thy wings, the sonnes of men shall dwell. 8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they shall be feed

Of all delights they shall be sped, and take thereof their fill.

9 For why? the well of life fo pure doth ever flow from thee, And in thy light we are full fure the lafting light to fee,

10 From such as thee desire to know let not thy grace depart;

Thy righteousnesse declare and shows to men of upright heart.

O Lord, of thy good grace: Nor let the wicked me affail, to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their device shall fall that wicked works maintain:

They shall be overthrown withall, and never rise again.

Noli zmulari. Pfal. XXXVII. w.w.

Because the godly should not be daunted to see wicked men prosper. David sheweth that all things shall be granted even with hearts desire to them that leve and sear God: but the wicked, albeit they should for a time, shall at length perish.

Sing this as the humble fuit of a finner. Rudge not to see the wicked men in wealth to flourish still: Nor yet envie such as to ill have bent and fet their will.

For as green graffe and flour ifhing herbs are cut, and wither away:

So shall their great prosperitie soon passe, fade, and decay.

3 Trust thou therefore in God alone, to do well give thy minde:

So shalt thou have the land as thine, and there fure food shalt finde.

4 In God fet all thy hearts delight, and look what thou wouldft have, Or elfe canft with in all the world.

thou need'st it not to crave.

Cast both thy self and thine affairs on God with perfect truft, And thou shalt see with patience th'effect both fure and just.

Thy perfect life and godly name he will clear as the light:

So that the funneeven at noon-day fhall not thine half to bright.

7 Be still therefore, and stedfastly on God see thou wait then,

Not firmking for the prosperous state of level and wicked men-

8 Shake off despite, envy, and hate, at least in any wife:

Their

Their wicked steps avoid and stee, and follow not their guise.

9 For every wicked man will God destroy, both more and lesse:

But fuch as trust in him are fure the land for to possesse.

10 Watch but a while, and thou fhalt fee no more the wicked train,

No not fo much as house or place where once he did remain.

The fecond part.

II But mercifull and humble men
enjoy thall fea and land:

In rest and peace they shall rejoyce, for nought shall them with stand.

12 The lewd men and malicious against the just conspire:

They gnash their teeth at him, as men which do his bane desire.

13 But while that lewd men thus do think, the Lord laughs them to fcorn: For why? he fees their term approch, when they shall figh and mourn.

The wicked have their fword out drawn, their bow eke have they bent, To overthrow and kill the poore, as he the right way went.

15 But the fame fword shall pierce their heart, which was to kill the just; Likewise the bow shall break to shivers, wherein they put their trust

16 Doubtlesse the just mans poore estate is better a great deal more

Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.

17 For be their power never to strong, God will it overthrow:

Where contrary he doth preferve the humble men and low.

18 He fees by his great providence, the good mens trade and way:

And will give them inheritance which never shall decay.

They shall not be discouraged, when some are hard bested:

When others shall be hunger-bit, they shall be clad and fed.

20 For whofoever wicked is, and enemic to the Lord,

Shall quail, yea melteven as lambes greafe, or smoke that flies abroad. The third part.

21 Behold the wicked borrows much, and never payes again:

Whereas the just by liberall gifts makes many glad and fain.

22 For they whom God doth bleffe, shall have the land for heritage,

And they whom he doth curfe, likwife shall perish in his rage.

23 The Lord the just mans wayes doth guide and gives him good successe;

To every thing he takes in hand he fendeth good addresse.

24 Though that he fall yet is he fure not utterly to quail:

Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand at need, and doth not fail.

25 I have been young and now am old, yet did I never fee

The just man left, nor yet his seed to beg for miserie.

and lends whereas is need:

His children and posteritie receive of God their meed.

27 Flee vice therefore and wickednesse, and vertue do embrace:

So God shall grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling-place.

28 For God fo loveth equitie, and thews to his fuch grace,

That he preferveth them alway, but froyes the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men inherit that the land

Having as lords all things therein in their own power and hand, of matters wife and high:

His tongue doth talk to edifie, with truth and equitie.

3 For in his heart the law of God his Lord doth still abide:

So that where ever he goes or walks, his foot can never flide.

32 The wicked like a ravining wolf the just man doth befer,

By all means feeking him to kill, if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

Though he should fall into his hands, yet God would fuccour fend:

Though men against him sentence give, God would him yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God and keep his way, he shall preserve thee then

The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.

35 The wicked have I feen most ftrong, and plac'd in high degree, Flourishing in all wealth and store, as doth the laurel-tree.

36 But suddenly he past away, and lo he was quite gone:

Then '

Then I him fought, but could not finde the place where dwelt fuch one.

37 Mark and behold the perfect man, how God doth him increase:

For the just man shall have at length great joy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressours, we to them, destroy'd they shall all be: God will cut off their budding race,

God will cut off their budding race, and rich posteritie.

39 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above,

Who in their trouble fends them aid, of his meere grace and love.

40 God doth them help, fave, and deliver from lewed men and unjust:

And feill will fave them whil'ft that they in him do put their stuft.

Domine ne. Psal.xxxviii, J. H.
David sick of some grievous disease, acknowledgeth himself to be chassisfed of the Lord for his simes, and therefore prayeth to God to turn away his wrath-but in the end, with firm considence, and commending his cause to God, hopeth for speedy help at his hand.
Sing this as the 30 psalme.

Put me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavy wrath, O Lord, correct me I defire.

2 Thine arrows do flick fast in me, thy hand doth presse me fore:

And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of thy weath that I am in: Nor any rest is in my bones by reason of my sinne.

4 For lo my wicked doings, Lord, above my head are gone:

A greater load then I can bear, they lie me fore upon.

5 My wounds flink and are feltred fo, as lothfome is to fee 1

Which all through mine own foolithnesse betideth unto me.

6 And I in carefull wife am brought in trouble and diffresse:

That I go wailing all the day in dolefull heavinesse.

y My loyns are fill'd with fore disease, my flesh hath no whole part.

3 I feeble am and broken fore, I roar for grief of heart.

Thou know it, Lord, my defire, my grones are open in thy fight.

nine eyes have loft their light.

11 My lovers and my wonted friends frand looking on my wo:

And eke my kinfmen farre away are me departed fro.

They that did feek my life, laid fnares, and they that fought the way

To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought on mischief all the day.

The fecond part.

13 But as a deaf man I became, that cannot heare at all:

14 And as one dumbe, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.

15 For all my confidence, O Lord, is wholly fet on thee:

O Lord thou Lord that art my God, thou shalt give eare to me.

This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:

For when my foot did flip, then they did joy my fall to fee.

in place, a wofull wight:

And eke my grievous heavinesse is ever in my fight.

18 For while that I my wickednesse in humble wise confesse:

And while I for my finfull deeds my forrows do expresse:

19 My foes do still remain alive, and mighty are also:

And they that hate me wrongfully, in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me that my good.
with evil do repay:

Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.

be thou not farre away:

22 Haste me to help, my Lord my God, my safety and my stay.

Dixi, Custodiam. Ps.1. xxxix. F. H. David having determined sleave, yet burst forth into words that he would not through his bitter gyies! for he maketh certain requests, which taste of mans instrintie, yet mixed with many prayers, and all to shew a minde wonderfully troubled, that it may appear how he did strive mightily against death and desperation.

Sing this as the humble fuit of a sinner.

Said, I will look to my wayes, for fear I should go wrong. I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keep falt my mouth with force and might. Not once to whifper all the while the wicked are in fight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no word, but kept me close and still:

Yea from good talk I did refrain, but fore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my breaft, with musing, thought, and doubt : Which did increase and stirre the sire, at last these words burst out;

5 Lord number out my life and dayes which yet I have not past,

So that I may be certifi'd how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life in length much like a span:

Mine age is nothing unto thee, fo vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vain himself annoy

In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now Lord, fith things this wife do frame, what help do I defire?

Of truth my help doth hang on thee, I nothing elle require.

The second part.

9 From all the sinnes that I have done
Lord quit me out of hand,
And make me not a scorn to foole

And make me not a fcorn to fools that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumbe, and to complain

no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

I can them not withstand:

I faint and pine away for fear of thy most heavy hand.

When thou for finne doft man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan,

As doth a cloth that moths have fret, fo vain a thing is man.

13 Lord heare my fuit and give good heed, regard my tears that fall:

I sojourn like a stranger here, as did my fathers all,

14 O spare a little, give me space my strength for to restore,

Before I go away from hence, and shall be seen no more.

Expectans expectavi. Pfal.xl. J. H.
David delivered from great danger, doth magnifie God therefore, and commendeth his providence towards all mankindes then he promifeth to give himfelf whody to Gods fervice, and declareth how God is truly worshipped: afterward he giveth thanks, and having complained of his enemies, he calleth for aid and fuccour.

Sing this as the 30 plalme.

I Waited long and fought the Lord, and patiently did bear:

At length to me he did accord my voice and cry to heare.

2 He pluckt me from the lake so deep out of the mire and clay: And on a rock he set my feet

And on a rock he fet my feet, and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taughta pfalme of praife, which I must shew abroad, And sing new songs of thanks alwayes unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk these things shall see, as people much afraid,

Then they unto the Lord will flee, and trust upon his aid.

5 Oblest is he whose hope and heare doth in the Lord remain,

That with the proud doth take no part, nor such as lie and feigne.

6 For Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds in greatnesse farre do passe, Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devife thy works abroad to show, To such a reckoning they do rife, thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-offerings thou delight'ff not ing
I know thy whole defire:
With facrifice to purge his finne

With facrifice to purge his finne thou doft no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and facrifice thou wouldft not have at all: But thou, O Lord, haft open made mine cares to heare withall.

I come a mean to be :

For in the volume of thy book thus is it faid of me,

vhich thing doth like me well:

For in my heart thy law I finde fast placed there to dwell.

12 Thy justice and thy righteousnesse in great resorts I tell:

Behold, my tongue no time doth cease, O Lord thou knowst full well.

The fecond part.

13 I have not hid within my breaft thy goodneffe as by flealth:

But I declare and have exprest thy truth and saving health.

14 I kept not close thy loving minde, that no man should it know:

The trust that in thy truth I finde, to all the church I show.

Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me withdraw thou not away;

26

But let thy love and veritie

preferve me fill for ay.

16 For I with mischiefs many 2 one am fore beset about:

My finnes increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head:

My heart doth faint for very dread, that I am almost dead.

28 With speed fend help and set me free, O Lord, I thee require:

Make hafte with aid to fuccour me, O Lord, at my defire.

19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame that seek my soul to spill:

Prive back my foes, and them defame that wish and would me ill.

20 For their ill feats do them descry, that would deface my name:

Alwayes at me they rail and crie, fie on him, fie for fhame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth that feek to thee alwayes:

That those that love thy saving health may say, To God be praise.

22 But as for me, I am but poore, opprest and brought full love:

Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and truft, my refuge, help and fray:

Wherefore my God, as thou art just, with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T.S. David grievously afflicted, blesseth them that pitie bis case, complaining on bis faithlesse friends, such as Judas, John vs. Then be giveth thanks for Gods merey in chassising bim gently, and not suffering his enemies to triumph.

Sing this as the 30 pfalme.
The man is bleft that carefull is the needic to confider:

For in the leafon perilous the Lord will him deliver.

2 The Lord will make him fafe and found, and happy in the land:

And he will not deliver him into his enemics hand.

And in his bed when he lies fick, the Lord will him reftore:

And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health his ficknesseand his fore. 4 Then in my ficknesse thus faid I.

have mercy Lord on me,
And healmy foul which is full wo that I offended thee.

me xii. xiii.

5 Mine enemies witht me ill in heart, and thus of me did fay, When stall he die that all his name

When shall he die, that all his name may vanish quite away?

6 And when they come to visit me, they ask if I do well:

But in their hearts mischief they hatch, and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whilper fo, as though they would me charm,

And cast their fetches how to trap me with some mortall harm.

8 Some grievous sinne hath brought him to this sicknesse, say thy plain:

He is so low that without doubt rise can he not again.

9 The man also that I did trust, with me did use deceit:
Who at my table ate my bread,

Who at my table ate my bread, the fame for me laid wair.

to Have mercy Lord on me therefore, and let me be preferved:

That I may render unto them the things they have deserved.

to be belov'd of thee,

When that mine enemies have no cause to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou hast me kept, and maintained alway:

And in thy presence place assign'dwhere I shall dwell for ay.

13 The Lord the God of Ifrael be praifed evermore: Even so be it, Lord, will I say, even so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Pfal. xlii. J. H.
David is grieved, that through perfectiours be could not be prefent in the congregation, protesting his presente in heart, albeit in hody separate. At last he sheweth, that notwithstanding these sorrows and thoughts, yet he continually putteth his trust in the Lord.
Sing this as the humble suit of a sinner.

L Ike as the hart doth breathe and bray the well-springs to obtain;

So doth my foul defire alway with thee, Lord, to remain.

2 My foul doth thirst, and would draw neare the living God of might:

Oh when shall I come and appear in presence of his fight!

3 The tears all times are my repair, which from mine eyes do flide:

When wicked men cry out fo fait, where now is God thy guide?

Alas, what grief is it to think what freedome once I had!

Therefore

PRIME

Therefore my foul as at pits brink most heavy is and fad.

When I did march in good aray. furnished with my train. Unto the temple was our way. with fongs and hearts most fain.

My foul, why art thou fad alwayes. and fretst thus in my breast?

Trust still in Gods for him to praise I hold it ever best.

By him I have fuccour at need against all pain and grief: He is my God, which with all speed will hafte to fend relief. "

6 And thus my foul within me, Lord, doth faint to think upon

The land of Jordan, and record the little hill Hermon.

The second part. 7 One grief another in doth call, as clouds burft out their voice :

The flouds of evil that do fall runne over me with noise.

8 Yet I by day felt his goodnesse and help at all affaies: Likewise by night I did not cease the living God to praise.

9 I am perswaded thus to say to him with pure pretence O Lord thou art my guide and flay, my rock and fure defence.

Why do I then in penfiveneffe hanging the head thus walk, While that mine enemies me oppreffe, and vex me with their talk?

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts with pangs to be abhorr'd, When they crie out with stubborn hearts, where is thy God thy Lord?

II So foon why dost thou faint and quail, my foul with pain opprest?

With thoughts why doft thy felf affail fo fore within my breaft?

Judica me Domine. Pfal. xliii, T. S.

He prayeth to be delivered from them which conspire with Absalom, to the end that he might joyfully praise God in his boly congregation.

Sing this as the 30 pfalme. Udge and revenge my caule, O Lord, from them that evil be : From wicked and deceitfull men O Lord deliver me.

2 For of my firength thou art the God. why putft thou me thee fros And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truth. and lead me with thy grace, Which may conduct me to thy hill. and to thy dwelling-place.

4 Then hall I to the altar go of God my joy and cheare:

And on my harp give thanks to thee, O God my God most deare.

Why art thou then fo fad my foul, and fretst thus in my breast?

Still trust in God; for him to praise I hold it alwayes best.

6 By him I have deliverance against all pain and grief: He is my God which doth alway at need fend me relief.

Deus auribus. Pfal. xliiii. T.S.

A most earnest prayer made in the name of the faithfull in perfecution, for sustaining the quarrel of Gods word, as in S. Paul, Rom. 8 .: Handada

They conquered not by fword nor friength the land of thy beheft :

But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace; because thou lov'dit them best.

4 Thou are my King O God, that holp [ = Jacob in fundrie wife.

David in great danger of Saul, who sent to stay him in his bed, declareth his innotencie and their sury, praying God to destroy all malicious simmers, who live for a time to exercise his people, but in the end consume in his wrath, to Gods glorie. For this he singeth praise to God, assured of his mercies.

Lord, I pray to thee : Defend and keep me from all those that tise and strive with me.

2 O Lord preserve me from those men, whose doings are not good: And see me sure

3 For lo, they wait my foul to take, they rage against me still:

Yea for no fault that I did make, I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare, when I no whit offend: Arise and save me from their snare, and see what they intend.

O Lord of hofts of Ifrael, arife and strike all lands:

And pity none that do rebell, and in their mischiefs stands.

6 At night they ftirre and feek about, as hounds they howl and grin:

And all the city clean throughout, from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway, but in their lips are swords:

They greed my death, and then would fay, what? none doth beare our words.

8 But Lord thou haft their wayes efpi'd, and laught thereat apace :

The heathen folk thou dost deride, and mock them to their face.

25 My tongue thy uprightnesse shall found, and speak it daily still:

For grief and shame do them confound that seek to work me ill.

Deus judicium. Psal. lxxii. J. H.

Gods kingdome by Christ is represented by Solomon, under whom shall be righteour siese, peace, and felicitie, unto whom all kings and nations shall do homage, whose name and power shall endure for ever.

Ord give thy judgements to the king,

that princely thing, Lord let thy justice dwell

2 That he may govern uprightly and rule thy folk aright: And so defend through equitie the poore that have no might.

3. And let the mountains that are high unto thy folk give peace: And oke let little hills apply, in justice to increase.

4. That he may help the weak and poore with aid, and make them ftrong:

And eke defiroy for evermore all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might:
So long as sunne doth shine by day.

or elfe the moon by night.

6 Lord make the king unto the just

6 Lord make the king unto the just like rain to fields new mown : And like to drops that lay the dust

And like to drops that lay the dust, and fresh the land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his time, and all shall be at peace,

Untill the moon shall leave to prime, waste, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be lord of sea and land, from shore to shore throughout:

And from the flouds within the land, through all the earth about.

The people that in deferts dwell shall kneel to him full thick:

And all his enemies that rebell the earth and duft shall lick.

The lords of all the isles thereby great gifts to him shall bring:

The kings of Saba and Arabie give many a coftly thing.

The second part.

II All kings shall seek with one accord in his good grace to stand:

And all the people of the world fhall ferve him at his hand.

12 For he the needle fort doth fave that unto him do call:

And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pitie on the poore that are with need opprest:

He doth preserve them evermore, and bring their souls to reft.

14 He shall redeem their lives from dread, from fraud, from wrong, from might: And eke the bloud that they shall bleed is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold:

He shall be honoured as a king, and daily be extold.

16 The mightie mountains of his land of corn shall bear such throng,

That it like cedar trees shall stand in Libanus full long.

17 Their cities eke full well shall speed, the fruits thereof shall passe:

In plentie it shall farre exceed, and spring as green as graffe.

18 For ever they thall praise his name, while that the sunne is light:

- And think them happie through the same, all folk shall blesse his might.
- 19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing to Israels God each one:

For he doth every wondrous thing, yea he himself alone.

20 And bleffed be his holy name all times eternally:

That all the earth may praise the same, amen, amen, say I.

David teacheth, that neither the prosperitie of the ungodly, nor the afflictions of the good, ought to discourage Gods children, but rather move them to consider Gods providence, and to reverence his judgements; for that the wicked vanish away the smoke, and the godly enter into life everlassing: in hope whereof, he resigneth himself into Gods hands.

Sing this as the 24 pfalme.

How ever it be, yet God is good and kinde to Ifrael: And to all fuch as fafely keep their conscience pure and well.

2 Yet like a fool I almost slipt, my feet began to slide:

And ere I wist even at a pinch my steps awrie gan glide.

3 For when I faw fuch fool ifh men, I grudg'd and did difdain That wicked men all things (hould have without turmoil or pain.

4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
as if death should them smite:

Their bodies are both frout and firong, and ever in good plight.

And free from all adversitie
when other men be shent:

And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore prefumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain:

And are even wrapt as in a robe, with rapine and difdain.

7 They are so fed that even for fat their eyes oft-times out start:

And as for worldly goods, they have more then can wish their heart. 3 Their life is most licentious, boafting much of the wrong Which they have done to simple men, and ever pride among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord they spare not to blaspheme: And prace they do of worldly things, no wight they do escem, to see their prosperous state:

and follow the fame rate.

These worldly things, sith wicked men be lords of sea and land?

12 For we may see how wicked men in riches still increase,

Rewarded well with worldly goods, and live in rest and peace.

13 Then why do I from wickednesse my fantasie refrain,

And wash my hands with innocents, and cleanse my heart in vain?

14 And fuffer scourges every day, as subject to all blame:

And every morning from my youth fustain rebuke and shame?

milliking mine eftate:

But that I should thy children judge as folk unfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might this matter understand:

But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand:

17 Untill the time I went into thine holy place, and then

I understood right perfectly the end of all these men.

18 And namely, how thou settest them upon a slipperie place:

And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

Then all men muse at that strange fight, to see how suddenly

They are destroy'd, dispatcht, consum'd, and dead so horribly.

20 Much like a dream when one awakes, fo shall their wealth decay:

Their famous names in all mens fight shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my minde was much opprest:

23 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beaft.

23 Yet neverthelesse by my right hand thou hold'st me alwayes fast:

In Sion eke he hath delight to make his dwelling-place.

And there he brake both shaft and bow, the sword, the spear, and shield:

And brake the ray to over throw in battel on the field.

Thou are more worthy honour Lord, more might in thee doth lie, 13 He did divide and cut the lea, that they might paffe at once:

And made the waters stand as still as doth an heap of stones. 14 He led them secret in a cloud by day when it was bright:

And in the night when dark it was, with fire he gave them light.

15 He brake the rocks in wildernesse, and gave the people drink :

54 And brought them out into the coasts of his own holy land

Even to the mount which he had got, by his strong arm and hand.

55 And there calt out the heathen folk, and did their dand divide :

And in their tents he let the tribes of Ifrael to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high they ftirr'd and tempted ftill, And would not keep his testament,

And tread upon the lions young, with dragons flout and strong.

14 For he that trufteth unto me I will dispatch him quite: And him defend, because that he doth know my name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth crie, an answer I will give:

And from his grief take him will I in glorie for to live.

16With length of yeares and dayes of wealth
I will fulfill his time:

The goodnesse of my saving health I will declare to him.

Bonum est. Psal. xcii. J. H.

A psalme for the sabbath, to stirre up the people to acknowledge and praise God in his works. David rejoyceth therein; but the wicked consider not that the ungodly, when he is most shourishing, shall most speedily perific. In the end is described the felicitie of the just, planted in the house of God, to praise the Lord.

Sing this as the 77 pfalme.

T is a thing both good and meet to praife the highest Lord:

And to thy name, O thou most high, to fing with one accord:

To shew the kindnesse of the Lord,

And eke declare his truth abroad when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten dringed instruments, on lute and harp so sweet: With all the mirth you can invent of instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce in things so wrought by thee:

And I have joy in heart and voice thy handy works to fee.

S O Lord how glerious and how greate are all thy works fo front!

So deeply are thy counsels set that none can trie them out.

6 The man unwise hath not the witthis gear to passe to bring:

And all fuch fools are nothing fit to understand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will as graffe do spring full fast,

They when they flourish in their ill for ever shall be waste.

8 But thou are mightie, Lord most high...

yea thou doft reigne therefore
In every time eternally both now and evermore.

For why? O Lord, behold and fee, behold thy foes, I say,

HOW

How all that work iniquitie thall perith and decay.

10 But thou, like as an unicorn, thalt lift mine horn on high; With fresh and new prepared oyl thine ointed king am I:

And of my foes before mine eyes thall fee the fall and thame:

Of all that up against me rise, mine eares shall heare the same.

The just shall flourish up on high as date-trees bud and blow:

And as the cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.

3 For they are planted in the place and dwelling of our God: Within his courts they spring apace.

and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shall bring both fat and well beseen:

And pleasantly both bud and spring with boughs and branches green.

To shew that God is good and just, and upright in his will:

He is my rock, my hope, and trust, in him there is none ill.

And from the stonie slint doth cause gush out the fountains clear.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. cxv. X.
The faithfull oppressed by idolatrous tyranes, promise that they will be mindfull of so great a benesit, if it would please God to beare their prayer, and deliver them by bis omnipotent power.

Sing this as the 119 pfalme.
Ot unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy name give praile,
Both for thy mercie and thy truth that are in thecalwayes.

2 Why shall the heathen scorners say, where is their God become?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols filver are and gold, works of mens hands they be:
They have a mouth, and do not freak and eyes, and do not see:

6 And they have eares joyn'd to their heads:

And notes eke they formed have, and do not fmell withall:

7 And hands they have, and handle not 3 and feet, and do not go:

A throat they have, yet through the fame they make no found to blow.

Those that make them are like to them, and those whose trust they be:

o Israel trust in the Lord, their help and shield is he.

their help and shield is he:

Truft ye the Lord that fear the Lord, their help and shield is he.

The Lord hath mindfull been of us, and will us bleffe also:

On Israel and on Aarons houle his bleflings he will show.

the Lord will bleffe them all:

Even he will bleffe them every one, the great and eke the small.

14 To you (I say) the loving Lord will multiply his grace:

To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the bleffed of the Lord, even of the Lord, I fay:

Which both the heaven and the earth hath made and fet in stay.

The heavens, yea the heavens high belong unto the Lord: The earth unto the fonnes of men he gave of free accord.

They that be dead do not with praise fet forth the Lords renown:

Nor any that into the place of filence do go down.

18 But we will praise the Lord our God from henceforth and for ay:

Sound ye the praises of the Lord, praise ye the Lord, I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Pfal. cxvi. N. David being in great danger of Saul in the defert of Maon, perceiving the great and inefitimable love of God toward him, magnifeth fuch great mercies, and protesteth that he will be thankfull for the same.

Sing this as the 103 pfalme.

Love the Lord, because my voice and prayer heard hath he:

2 When

2 When in my dayes I call'd on him, he bow'd his care to me.

3 Even when the snares of cruel death about beset me round:

When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and forrow found.

4 Upon the name of God my Lord then did I call, and fay, Deliver thou my foul, O Lord,

I do thee humbly pray.
The Lord is very mercifull, and just he is also:

And in our God compassion doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safetie doth preserve all those that simple be:

I was in wofull miserie, and he delivered me.

7 And now my foul, fith thou art fafe, return unto thy reft:

For largely, lo, the Lord to thee his bountie hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast delivered my soul from deadly thrall: My moistened eyes from mournful tears, my fliding feet from fall:

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:

10 I did beleeve, therefore I spake, for I was troubled fore,

The fecond part.

It I faid in my diffresse and fear, that all men liars be:

x 2 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take:

And on the Lords name I will call when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows that I to him behight: Yea, even at this prefent time in all his peoples fight.

15 Right deare and precious in his light the Lord doth ay efteem

The death of all his holy ones, what ever men do deem.

16 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo, I do my self confesse, Sonne of thy handmaid: thou half broke the bonds of my diffreffe.

a facrifice of praise:

And I will call upon the name of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vows that I have him behight, Yea, even at this present time in all his peoples fight.

19 Yea in the courts of Gods own house, and in the midst of thee

O thou Jerusalem, I say, wherefore the Lord praise ye.

Laudate Dominum, Pfal, exvii, N.
He exhoreeth the Gentiles to praife God, because be hath accomplished as well to them, as to the Jews, the promise of life everlashing by Jesus Christ.

O All ye nations of the world, praife ye the Lord alwayes: And all ye people every where fet forth his noble praife.

Forgreat his kindneffe is to us,
his truth endures for ay:

Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God; praise ye the Lord, I say.

Confirmini. Plal. exviii, N. David rejected of Saul and of the people, at the time appointed obtained the kingdome, for the which he biddeth all men that fear the Lord to be thankfull: under whose perfon Christ is lively set forth, who should be of his people rejected.

Sing this as the 69 pfalme.

Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:

Because his mercie doth endure for ever towards thee.

2 Let Ifrael confesse and say,
his mercie dures for ay:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,

his mercie dures for ay.

4. Let all that fear the Lord our God

The mercie of the Lord our God endureth ftill for ay.

y Introuble and in heavineffe unto the Lord I cri'd: Which lovingly heard me at large, my fuit was not deni'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my fide, I will not stand in doubt,

Nor fear what man can do to me, when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them ...
that help to fuccour me:
Therefore I shall fee my define

Therefore I shall see my defire upon mine enemic.

8 Better it is to trust in God then in mans mortall seed:

 Or to put confidence in kings or princes in our need.

and compaffed me round:

But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every fide, they kept me in, I fay;

But in the Lords most mightie name I shall work their decay.

12. They came about me all like bees, but yet in the Lords name

I quencht their thorns that were on fire, and will destroy the same.

The fecend part.

Thou hast with force thrust fore at me that I indeed might fall:

But through the Lord I found fuch help that they were variouslibtall.

14 The Lord is my defence and strength, my joy, my mirth, my long:

He is become for me indeed a Saviour most strong.

The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to passe great things:

He canfeth voice of joy and health in righteous mens dwellings.

16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mightie things to passe:

His hand hath the preeminence, his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die, but ever live to utter and declare

The Lord his might and wondrous power, his works, and what they are.

13 The Lord himself hath chaftened and hath corrected me:

But hath not given me over yet to death, as ye may fee.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteoulnesse:

That I may enter into them the Lords praise to expresse.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord, which shall not so be shut

But good and righteous men alway shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, because thou has heard me,

And art become most lovingly
2 Saviour unto me.

The stone which ere this time among the builders was refused,

Is now become the corner-ftone, and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mightie work of God, this was the Lords own fact:

And it is marvellous to behold with eyes that noble a &.

24 This is the joyfull day indeed which God himfelf hath verought: Let us be glad and joy therein in heart, in minde, in thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us we wish with one accord:

26 Bleffed is he that comes to us in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light, binde ye therefore with cord

Your facrifice to the altar, and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confesse, and render thanks to thee:

Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercie towards me.

29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord, for gracious is he:

Because his mercie doth endure for ever towards me.

Beati immaculati. Pfal. cxix. w.w.

The prophet wonderfully commendeth Gods law, wherein he cannot fathfie bimfelf, nor expressed fusible this affection, thereunto adding notable complaints and confolations meet for the faithfull to have both in heart and voice. And in the Hebrew, every eight verses begin with one letter of the alphabet.

3 Doubtlesse such men go not aftray nor do no wicked thing,

Which stedfastly walk in his way without any wandring.

A It is thy will and commandment, that with attentive heed

Thy noble and divine precepts we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee please my wayes so to addresse,

That

laime exix.

That I might both in heart and voice thy laws keep and confesse! 6 So should no shame my life artaint, whil' it I thus set mine eyes,

And bend my minde alwayes to muse on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright heart, and magnifie thy name,

When I shall learn thy judgements just, and likewise prove the same.

8 And wholly will I give my felf to keep thy laws most right: For sake me not for ever, Lord, but shew thy grace and might,

BETH. The second part.

9 By what means may a young man belt his life learn to amend ? If that he mark and keep thy word, and therein his time spend.

and thus feeking abide:

O never fuffer me, O Lord, from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thoughts thy words I have hid still:

That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.

and praise thee evermore:

Thy statutes of most worthy same O Lord teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceast to preach and publish day and night The judgements all which did proceed from thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes please me no lesse indeed

Then all the treasures of the earth, which worldlings make their meed.

15 Of thy precepts I will fill muse, and thereto frame my talk:

As at a mark, so will I aim thy wayes how I may walk. 16 My onely joy shall be so fixt, and on thy lays so set:

That nothing can me so farre blinde, that I thy words forger.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy fervant now fuch grace as may my life prolong:

Thy holy word then will I keep both it my heart and tongue.

18 Muse eyes which were dimme & thut up fo open and make bright:

That of thy law and marvellous works .

I may have the clear fight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth, wandring now here now there: Thy word therefore to me disclose my footsteps for to clear.

20 My soul is ravisht with defire, and never is at reft:

But feeks to know thy judgements high,
and what may pleafe thee beft.

The proud men and malicious thou hast destroy'd each one: And curfed are such as do not thy hests attend upon.

22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame which wicked men conspire:

For I have kept thy covenants with zeal as hot as fire.

23 The princes great in counsel sat, and did against me speak:

But then thy fervant thought how he thy fratures might not break.

24 For why? thy covenants are my joy, and my hearts great folace:

They ferve in stead of counsellers, my matters for to passe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

25 I am, alas, as brought to grave, and almost turn'd to dust: Restore therefore my life again, as thy promise is just.

26 My wayes when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didft heare:

Heare now eftfoon, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear-

27 Teach me once throughly for to know thy precepts and thy lore:

Thy works then will I meditate, and lay them up in store. 28 My foul I feel so fore oppress, that it melteth for grief:

According to thy word therefore hafte Lord to fend relief.

29 From lying and described lips let thy grace me defend:

And that I may learn thee to love, thy holy law me fend 30 The way of truth both straight and sure

I have chosen and found:

I fee thy judgements me before, which keep me fafe and found.

31 Since then, O Lord, I fored my felf thy covenants to embrace:

Let me therefore have no rebuke nor cheek many cafe.

32 Then will I runne with joyfull cheer where thy word doth me call:

When:

Plainic Cxi

When thou hast fee my heart at large, and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right trade of thy statutes divine:

And it to keep even to the end my heart will I incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law, and I shall it obey:
With heart and minde and all my might

I will it keep, I fay.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me, Lord, I require !
None other pleafure do I with,

nor greater thing defire.

And from all filthy avarice

Lord shield me with thy grace.

37 From vain defires and worldly lufts turn back mine eyes and fight and fire of life and power to walk the wayes aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promile, Lord, which thou hast made to me,

Which am thy fervant, and do love and fear nothing but thee.

39 Reproch and shame which I so fear, from me, O Lord, expell:

For thou dost judge with equitie, and therein dost excell.

40 Behold, my hearts desire is bent thy laws to keep for ay:

Lord strengthen me so with thy grace that it perform I may.

VAu. The fixth part.

4x Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtain, O Lord:

Thy faving health let me enjoy, according to thy word.

42 So shall I stop the standerous mouthes of lewd men and unjust:

For in thy faithfull promifes flands my comfort and truft.

43 The word of truth within my mouth let ever still be prest:

For in thy judgements wonderfull my hope doth stand and rest.

44 And whil'it that breath within my breaft doth naturall life preferve:

Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd, thy law will I observe.

and made free from all dread:
Because I sought how for to keep thy precepts and thy read.

46 Thy noble acts I will describe, as things of most great same: Even before kings I will them blaze, and shrink no whit for shame,

47 I will rejoyce then to obey thy worthy helts and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd belt, and so will love them still.

48 My hands I will lift to thy laws which I have dearly fought:

And practife thy commandements in will, in deed, in thought.

ZAIN. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me thy servant, Lord, remember:

For therein have I put my trust and confidence for ever.

you when troubles me affail:

For were my life not by thy wor

For were my life not by thy word, my life would foon me fail.

fill made of me a fcorn:

Yet would I not thy law forfake, as he that were forlorn.

52 But call'd to minde, Lord, thy great works thew'd to our fathers old:

Whereby I felt the joy furmount my grief an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas for fear I quake, feeing how wicked men Thy law for fook, and did procure thy judgements who knows when?

54 And as for me, I fram'd my fongs thy statutes to exalt, When I among the strangers dwelt, and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord, by night when others fleep:

As for thy law also I kept, and ever will it keep.

56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and deare

I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

HETH. The eighth part.

57 O God which art my part and lot, my comfort and my stay,

I have decreed and promifed thy laws to keep alway.

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue in presence of thy face:

As thou therefore hast promised, Lord grant me of thy grace.

39 My life I have examined, and tri'd my fecret heart:

Which to thy statutes caused me my feet straight to convert.

60 I did not flay nor linger long, as they that flothfull are:

But hastily thy laws to keep I did my felf prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men have made of me their prey :

Yet would I not thy law forget, nor from thee go aftray.

62 Thy righteous judgements towards me fo great are and fo high:

That even at midnight will I rife thy name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them which fear thee in their heart: And never will for love nor dread from thy commandments flart. 64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously do all the world fulfill:

O teach me how I may obey thy ftatutes and thy will.

TETH. The ninth part. 65 According to thy promise, Lord, so hast thou with me dealt:

For of thy grace in fundrie forts have I thy fervant felt.

66 Teach me to judge alwayes aright, and give me knowledge fure :

For certainly beleeve I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didit touch me with thy rod, I err'd and went aftray:

But now. I keep thy holy word, and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giv'ft most liberally :

Thy ordinances how to keep, therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd against me many a lie:

Yet thy commandments still observe with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are fwoln with worldly wealth; as greafe fo are they fat :

But in thy law do I delight, and nothing feek but that 71 O happie time, may I well fay, when thou didftme correct: For as a guide to learn thy laws thy rod did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law is dearer manifold

Then thousands great of filver and gold, or ought that can be told.

70D. The tenth part. 73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord, to be thy creature:

Grant knowledge likewife how to learn to put thy laws in ure: 74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce when ever they me fee: Because I have learn'd by thy word to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is plagu'd, I know the cause is just :

So when thou dost correct me, Lord, the cause just needs be must.

76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray fome comfort to me fend :

As thou to me thy fervant hetfl, fo from all ill me thend.

77 Thy tender mercies poure on me, and I shall furely live :

For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give.

78 Confound the proud whose false pretence is me for to deftroy :

But as for me, thy hefts to know I will my felf employ.

79 Whoso with reverence do thee fear, to me let them retire :

And fuch as do thy covenants know, and them alone defire.

So My heart without all wavering let on thy laws be bent:

That no confusion come to me, whereby I should be shent.

CAPH. The xi part.

81 My foul doth faint and ceafeth not thy faving health to crave s

And for thy words fake still I trust my hearts defire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I fay,

Oh when wilt thou me comfort, Lord? why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke, fo am I parcht and dri'd:

Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandments flide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet live before I fee the houre,

That on my foes which me torment, thy vengeance thou wilt poure?

85 Presumptuous men have digged pits, thinking to make me fure:

Thus contrarie against thy law, my hurt they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true, and causeleffe they me grieve :

To thee therefore I do complain, that thou mightst me relieve.

87 Almost

87 Almost they had me clean destroy'd, and brought me quite to ground: Yet by thy statutes I abode, and therein fuccour found.

Reftore me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excel!:

And so shall I thy covenants keep till death my life expell.

LAMED. The xii part.

89 Inheaven Lord, where thou dost dwell, thy word is stablish fure:

And shall for all eternitie fast graven there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides, as doth the earth witnesse:

Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure as no tongue can expresse.

91 Eyen to this day we may well fee how all things perfevere According to thine ordinance, for all things thee revere.

92 Had it not been that in thy law my foul had comfort fought,

Long time ere now in my distresse I had been brought to nought.

73 Therefore will I thy precepts ay in memorie keep fast: By them thou hast my life restor'd when I was at last cast.

94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:

Save me therefore, for to thy laws mine cares and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do feek my bane, and thereto lie in wait:

But I the while confidered thy noble works and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world at length which hath not end:

But thy commandments and thy word beyond all end extend,

MEM. The xiii part.

97 What great defire and fervent love do I bear to thy law! All the day long my whole device is onely on thy fave.

98 Thyword hath taught me farre to passe my foes in policie:

For still I hold it as a thing of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me infruct, in knowledge I excell:
Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to otherstell.
100 In wisdome I do passe also the ancient men indeed:

And all because to keep thy laws I held it ay best reed.

for My feet I have refrained eke from every evil way, Because that I continually thy word might keep, I fay.

102 I have not fivery'd from thy judgements, nor yet thrunk any dell:

For why? thou hast me taught thereby to live godly and well.

to live godly and well.

102 O Lord, how fweet unto my tafte

finde I thy words alway!

Doubtlesse no honie in my mouth feel ought fo tweet I may.

104 Thy laws have me fuch wildome learn'd, that utterly I hate

All wicked and ungodly wayes, in every kinde or rate.

NUN. The xiiii part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet, fo doth thy word shine bright:

And to my paths where ever I go it is a flaming light.

106 Thave both sworn and will perform most certainly doubtlesse

That I will keep thy judgements just, and them in life expresse.

and brought me to deaths doore:

O Lord, as thou hast promised, fo me to life restore.

108 The offerings which with heart and voice most frankly I thee give Accept, and to the me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My foul is ay foin my hand, that dangers me affail:

Yet do I not thy law forget, nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets to catch me at a bay,

Yet did I not from thy precepts once (werve or go aftray, 111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway as mine own heritage:

And why? for therein I delight, and fet my whole courage.

TT2 For evermore I have been bent thy flatutes to fulfill:

Even so likewise unto the end I will continue still.

SAMECH. The xu part.

The craftie thoughts and double hearts
I do alwayes deteit:

But as for thy law and precepts, I love them ever best,

114 Thou

114 Thou are my hid and fecret place, my fhield of ftrong defence: Therefore have I thy promifes lookt for with patience.

depart from me anon:

For the commandments will I keep of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promised so perform, that death me not assail:

Nor let my hope abuse meso, that through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be fafe for ought they do or say:

And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet as do thy statutes break:

For nought avails their fubriltie, their counfel is but weak.

119 Like droffe thou cafts the wicked out where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy flatutes love nothing half fo well.

120 My fiesh (alas) is taken with fear, as though it were benumm'd:

For when I fee thy judgements, straight
I am as one asson'd.

AIN. The xvi part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and give to all men right:

Refigne me not to them that would oppresse me with their might.

122 But for thy fervant furetic be in that thing that is good: That proud men give me not the foil, which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blinde, thy health fo much I crave: And eke thy righteous promife, Lord, whereby thou wilt me fave.

124 Entreat thy servant lovingly, and favour to him show:

Thy statutes of most excellencie teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble fervant, Lord, I am, grant me to understand

How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time, Lord, to begin, for truth is quite decaid:

Thy law likewise they have transgrest, and none against them said.

This is the cause wherefore I love thy laws better then gold, Or jewels fine which are effecm'd most costly to be sold. 123 I thought thy precepts all most just, and so them laid in store:

All craftie and malicious wayes
I do abhorre therefore,

The xvii part.

Thy covenants are most wonderfull, and full of things profound:

My foul therefore doth keep them fure, when they are tri'd and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word they finde a light most clear:

And very idiots understand when they it reade or heare.

132 For joy I have both gap'd and breath'd toknow thy commandment;

That I might guide my felf thereby I fought what thing it meanr.

132 With mercie and compassion, Lord, behold me from above,

As thou art wont to behold such as thy name fear and love.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word, that I thy will may know:

And never let iniquitie thy fervant overthrow.

134 From flanderous tongues and deadly preferve and keep me fure: (harms

Thy precepts then will I observe, and put them eke in ure, 135 Thy countenance which doth surmount the sunne in his bright hue,

Let shine on me, and by thy lave teach me what to eschew.

the wicked shough they grudge:

And when thou doft fentence pronounce, thou art a righteous judge, are two chief points most high:

And fuch as thou halt in thy lave commanded us ftraitly.

139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd and even pin'd away,

To see my foes thy word forget, for ought that I do may.

as any heart can deem:

And I thy fervant nothing more do love or yet efteem.

141 And though I be nothing let by, as one of base degree:

Yet do I not thy laws forget, nor flirink away from thee.

142 Thy

o Planne cxia,

142 Thy righteoufnesse, Lord, is most just, for ever to endure:
Also thy law is trust it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and grief have feis'd on me, and brought me wondrous low:

Yet do I fill of thy precepts delight to heare and know.

The righteousnesse of thy judgements doth last for evermore:

Then teach them me, for even in them my life lies up in store.

KOPH. The xix part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and or'd, now answer me, O Lord:

That thy commandments to observe I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my fuit with most humble request:

Save me therefore and I will keep thy precepts and thy hest.

147 To thee I crie even in the morn before the day wax light:

Because that I have in thy word my confidence whole plight.

348 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night, and ere they call I wake:

That by deviling on thy word

I might some comfort take.

Incline thine cares to heare my voice, and pitie on me take:

As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord, lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw neare, and do procure my death maliciously,

Which from thy law are farre gone back, and ftray'd from it levelly.

for need doth so require:

For all thy precepts true they are, then help I thee defire.

172 But thy commandments have I learn'd not now but long ago.

That they remain for evermore, thou hast them grounded so.

RESH. The xx parts

153 My trouble and affication confider and behold:

Deliver me, for of thy law I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed some succour send:

From death, as thou hast promised, Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, farre they are from having health and grace: Whereby they might thy statutes know they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant, what tongue can them attain?

And as thou hast me judg'd ere now, so let me life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble me, and perfecute me fore: Yet from thy laws I never thrunk, nor went awry therefore.

to prove I did not force:

And in the presence of the Lord my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my fpirit, my path was known to thee:

In way where I did walk a fnare they flily laid for me.

 I lookt and view'd on my right hand but none there would me know:
 All refuge failed me, and for

All refuge failed me, and for my foul none cared tho.

Then cry'd I, Lord, to thee, and faid, my hope thou onely art: Thou in the land of living art my portion and my part.

6 Heark to my crie, for I am brought full low, deliver me for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy name, my foul from prison, Lord, bring out:

When thouart good to me, the just shall presse me round about.

Domine exaudi. Psal, cxliii. N.
An earnest prayer for remission of sinnes, acknowledging that the enemies did cruelly persecute bim by Gods just judgement. He desireth to be restored to grace, to be governed by his boly spirit, that he may spend the rest of bis life in the true sear and service of God.

Sing this as the 145 pfalme.

Ord heare my prayer, heark the plaint that I do make to thee:

Lord in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.

2 In judgement with thy fervant, Lord, O enter not at all:

For justifi'd be in thy fight not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemie hath purfu'd my foul, my life to ground hath thrown:

And laid me in the dark, like them that dead are long agone.

was mine accumbred fprite:

And in me was my troubled heart amazed and afright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate: Yea, in thy works I meditate that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord my God, lo I do fretch my craving hands:

My foul defireth after thee, as do the thirftie lands.

7 Heare me with speed, my spirit doth fail, hide not thy face me fro:

Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy loving kindnesse in the morning heare and know:

For in thee is my trust, shew me the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my foul to thee, O Lord, deliver me From all mine enemies: for I have hidden me with thee.

Teach me to do thy will, for thou, thou art my God, I say,

Let thy good Spirit unto the land of mercy me convey.

For thy names fake with quickning grace alive do thou me make:

And out of trouble bring my foul even for thy justice lake.

O Lord, destroy them all

That do oppresse my soul, for I thy servant am and shall.

Benedictus Dom. Pfal. cxliiii. N.

David praiseth the Lord for his victories and kingdome restored, yet calling for the destru-Ction of the wicked: and declareth wherein the felicitie of any people consisteth.

Sing this as the 145 pfalme.

Left be the Lord my strength, that doth B instruct my hands to fight: The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battel by his might. 2 He is my goodnesse, fort, and tower, deliverer and shield: In him I truft; my people he subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him thou holdest so in price?

Or sonne of man, that upon him thou thinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanitie, so passe his dayes to end

5 As fleeting shade. Bowe down, O Lord, the heavens and descend.

6 The mountains touch & they shall smoke. caft forth thy lightning flame

And scatter them: thine arrows shoot, confume them with the fame.

7 Send down thine hand even from above. O Lord deliver me :

Take me from waters great, from hand of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtil mouth of vanitie and fondnesse doth entreat:

And their right hand is a right hand of falshood and deceit. o A new fong will I fing, O God, and finging will I be On viol and on instrument ten-ftringed unto thee.

To Even he it is that onely gives deliverance to kings: Unto his servant David help from hurtfull (word he brings. IT From strangers hand me save and shield, whose mouth talks vanitie:

And their right hand is a right hand of guile and subtiltie.

12 That our sonnes may be as the plants whom growing youth doth rear: Our daughters as carv'd corner-stones, like to a palace fair :

13 Our garners full, and plentie may with fundrie forts be found:

Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets ten thousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong. that none do us invade :

There be no goings out, nor cries within our streets be made.

15 The people bleffed are that with fuch bleffings are fo ftor'd:

Yea, bleffed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Pfal. cxlv. N.

David describeth the wonderfull providence of God, in governing and preserving all the other creatures. He praiseth God for his juffice, mercie, and speciall loving kindnesse towards all those that call upon bim, that fear bim, and love bim.

I of thy glorious majestie the beautie will record: And medicate upon thy works most wonderfull, O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acts declare:

And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great :

And I aloud thy righteouineffe in finging shall repeat.

8 The Lord out God is gracious, and mercifull also:

Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is flow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed:

10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee, Lord, and do thy honour spread.

II Thy faints do bleffe thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show:

12 And blaze thy power to cause the sonnes of men thy power to know.

The

The fecond part. 12 And of his mightie kingdome eke to spread the glorious praise: Thy kingdome, Lord, a kingdome is that doth endure alwayes :

And thy dominion through each age endures without decay. 14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall, their fliding he doth stay.

Is The eyes of all do wait on thee: thou dost them all relieve :

And thou to each sufficing food in season due dost give.

16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand, and bountcoully dost fill

All things whatfoever do live with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is just in all his wayes, his works are holy all.

18 Neare all he is that call on him, in truth that on him call.

19 He the defires which they require that fear him will fulfill:

And he will heare them when they crie, and fave them all he will.

20 The Lord preserves all those, to him that bear a loving heart:

But he them all that wicked are will utterly subvert.

2.1 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speak the praises of the Lord :

All flesh to praise his holy name for ever shall accord.

Lauda anima, Pfal, cxlvi. J. H. David teacheth that none should put their truft in men, but in God alone, who is Almightie, and delivereth the afflicted, nourisbeth the poore, setteth prisoners at libertie, comfortetb the fatherlesse,strangers.o widows, and is king for ever.

Sing this as the 137 pfalme.

Y-foul praise thou the Lord alwayes, my God I will confesse:

2 While breath and life prolong my dayes, my tongue no time shall cease. 3 Trust not in worldly princes then, though they abound in wealth: Nor in the sonnes of mortall men, in whom there is no health.

& Forwhy? their breath doth foon depart, to earth anon they fall:

And then the counsels of their heart decay and perish all.

5 Ohappie is that man, I say, whom Jacobs God doth aid, And he whose hope doth not decay, but on the Lord is staid.

6 Which made the earth and waters deep. the heavens high withall : Which doth his word and promife keep

The Lord I fay, doth love the right and just man evermore.

9 He doth defend the fatherleffe, and stranger sad in heart,

And quitthe widow from diffreffe, and ill mens wayes subvert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally O Sion still shall reigne, In time of all posteritie for ever to remain.

Laudate Dominum, Pfal, cxlvii. N.

The prophet praiseth the bountie, wisdome, power, justice, and providence of God upon all creatures, but especially upon bis church, which he gathered together after their di-Sperfion, declaring bis word and judgement fo unto them, as he bath done to no other people:

Ratie ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to fing: For it is pleafant, and to praise as a comely thing.

The Lordhis own Jerusalem he buildeth up alone: And the disperst of Israel doth gather into one.

? He heals the broken in their heart, their fores up doth he binde :

4 He counts the number of the starres, and names them in their kinde.

5. Great is the Lord, great is his power, his wildome infinite.

6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws: to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise, unto the Lord rejoyce:

And to our God upon the harp advance your finging voice.

8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain :

And on the mountains he doth make the graffito grow aguin.

9: He

9 He gives to beafts their food, and to young ravens when they crie.

TO His pleasure not in strength of horse nor in mans legs doth lie;
I But in all those that fear the Lord

And fuch as do attend upon his mercies thining light.

The fecond part.

12 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem, thy God, O Sion, praise:

For he the barres hath forged ftrong, wherewith thy gates he ftayes.

14 Thy children he hath bleft in thee, and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the floure of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement upon the earth he sendeth out:

And eke his word with speedie course doth swiftly run about.

16 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost like ashes he doth spread:

17 Like morfels cafts his ice, thereof

18 He sendeth forth his mighty word, and melteth them again:

His winde he makes to blow, and then the waters flow amain.

19 The doctrine of his holy word to Jacob he doth show:

His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.

20 With every nation hath he not fo dealt, nor have they known His fecret judgements, ye therefore praife ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Pfal. cxlviii. J. H. He provoketh all creatures to praife the Lord in heaven, and in all places, specially for the power that he bath given to his people Israel.

3 Praife him both moon and funne, Which are fo clear and bright: The fame of you be done, Ye gliftring ftarres of light: 4 And eke no leffe, Ye heavens fair, 5 And clouds of the aire, His laud expresse.

6 For athis word they were
All formed as we fee:
At his voiced id appear
All things in their degree,
Which he fet fait:
To them he made
A law and trade
For ay to laft.

7 Extoll and praife Gods name On earth ye dragons fell: All deeps do yethe fame, For it becomes ye well. 8 Him magnife, Fire hail, ice, frow.

Fire, hail, ice, fnow, And ftorms that blow At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all, And trees that fruitfull are, The cedars great and tall His worthy praise declare. 10 Beafts and cattel, Yea birds flying, And worms creeping,

II All kings both more and leffe With all their pompous train, Princes and all judges That in the world remain, Exalt his name,

That on earth dwell.

12 Young men and maids, Old men and babes, Do ye the fame.

13 For his name shall we prove To be most excellent, Whose praise is farreabove The earth and sirmament, 14 For surche shall Exalt with bliffe

The horn of his,
And help them all.

15 His faints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness.
The children of Israel
Each one both more and lesse:
16 And also they
That with good will
His words tulfill,

And him obey.

Cantate Domino, Plal, exlix. N.

An exhortation to the church, to praife the Lord for his victorie and conquest that he giveth his faints against all mans power.

Sing

Sing this as the 145 pfalme.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God
a new rejoycing fong;
Ard let the praise of him be heard his hoty faints among,
Let Israel rejoyce in him
that made him of nothing;
And let the feed of Sion eke be joyfull in their king.

3 Let them found praise with voice of lute unto his holy name;

And with the timbrel and the harp fing praises of the same.

4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set: And by deliverance he will raise the meek to glory great.

With glorie and with honour now let all his faints rejoyce:

And now aloud upon their beds advance their finging voice.

6 And in their months let be the acts of God the mighty Lord: And in their hands eke let them bear a double-edged fword:

7 To plague the heathen, and correct the people with their hands:

8 To binde their stately kings in chains, their lords in iron bands: o To execute on them the doom that written is before. This honour all his faints thall have praife ye the Lord therefore.

Liudate Dominum. Plal. C.L. W. An exhortation to praise the Lord without ceasing, by all manner of wayes, for all his mighty and wonderfull works.

Sing this as the 147 pfalme.
Yeld unto God the mighty Lord
praife in his fanctuarie:
And praife him in the firmament,
that flews his power on high.

2 Advance his name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes:

According to his excellencie of greatnesse give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise of founding trumpets blow: Praise him upon the viol and upon the harp also.

4 Praife him with timbrel and with flutes organs and virginals:

5 With founding cymbals praise ye himpraise him with loud cymbals.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praife the Lord: To praife the name of God the Lord agree with one accord.

Sing this as the too plaime.

Praife ye the Lord ye Gentilesall, which hath brought you into his light:
Opraife him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and right.
For he is full determined on us to poure out his mercie:
And the Lords truth be ye-affured abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father, and to Jesus Christ his true Sonne, With the holy Ghost in like manner now and acevery season.

A fong to be fung before evening prayer.

Sing this as the 100 pfalme.

Behold now give heed, such as be the Lords servants faithful and true:
Come praise the Lord every degree, with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that stand in the Lords house, even in our own Gods mansion, Praise ye the Lord so bounteous, which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place, yea and that in the time of night: Praife ye the Lord which gives all grace, for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heaven & earth by his power Give to you and your nation his blessing mercy and sayour, Glory be to God the Father, &c.

The X Commandments of God. Exod. 20. W.W

The ten commandments.

I I am thy fovereigne Lord and God, Which have thee brought from carefull thral, And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod: Make thee no gods on them to call:

Nor fashioned form of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sinne will smite.

3 Take not in vain his holy name, Abuse it not after thy will: For so thou might'st soon purchase blame, And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the feventh day ceast, And brought all things to perfect end: So thou and thine that day take rest, That to Gods hests ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give, As Gods commandments do intend: That thou long dayes and good mayft live In earth where God a place doth lend,

6 Beware of murder and cruel hate. 7 All filthy fornication fear.

8 See thou steal not in any rate.

9 Falle witnesse against no man bear.

TO Thy neighbours house with not to have, His wife, or ought that he calls mine: His field, his ox, his affe, his slave, Or any thing which is not thine.

A prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us, O'Lord, To keep these laws our hearts restore: And cause us all with one accord To magnishe thy name therefore.

For of our felves no strength we have To keep these laws after thy will: Thy might therefore, O Christ, we crave, That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord, for thy names sake grant us this; Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ: Of thee to speed how should we misse, In whom our treasure doth consists

To thee for evermore be praife, With the Father in each respect, And with the holy Spirit alwayes, The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D. Coxe.

with one heart, Our heavenly Father, and our God: Grant we pray not with lips alore,

But with our hearts deep figh and grone.

The Lords prayer.

Thy bleffed name be fanctifi'd, Thy holy Word might us inflame, In holy life for to abide To magnifie thy holy Name. From all errours defend and keep

The little flock of thy poore fleep.

Thy kingdome come even at this houre,
And henceforth everlaftingly:
Thine holy Ghod incurs source.

Thine holy Ghost into us poure, With all his gifts most plenteously. From Satans rage and filthy band Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven in earth also:
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.

Let not flesh, bloud, or any ill, Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread, And all other good gifts of thine: Keep us from warre, and from bloudshed, Also from sicknesse, dearth, and pine:

That we may live in quietnesse, Without all greedy carefulnesse.

Forgive us our offences all, Relieve our carefull confcience; As we forgive both great and small Which unto us have done offence.

Prepare us, Lord, for to serve thee In perfect love and unitie.

O'Lord, into temptation
Lead us not; when the fitend doth rage
To withfland his invasion
Give power and firength to every age.
Arm and make firong thy feeble hoft
With faith, and with the holy Ghoft,

O Lord, from evil deliver us,
The dayes and times are dangerous :
From everlafting death fave us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A bleffed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our fouls receive.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings, And thou haft power over all:
Thy glory finite hin all things,
In the wide world universall.

Amen, let the done O Lord

Amen, let it be done, O Lord, That we have pray divith one accord.

And in like manner I beleeve in Christ our Lord his Sonne, Coequall with the Deirie, and man in flesh and bone; Conceived by the holy Ghost, his word doth me affure; And of his mother Mary born, yet she a virgin pure.

Because mankinde to Satan was for sine in bond and thrall:
He came and offered up himself to death, to save us all.
And suffering most grievous pains
then Pilate being judge,
Was crucified on the croffe,
and thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh, but quickned in the flesh, but quickned in the ferite: His bodie then was buried, as is our use and rite. His soul did after this descend into the lower parts:

A dread unto the wicked for ites

And in the third day of his death he rofe to life again,
To th' end he might be glorifi'd,
out of all grief and pain.
Afcending to the heavens high,
to fir in glorie fill
On Gods right hand his Father deare, according to his will;

but joy to faithfull hearts.

Untill the day of judgement come, when he shall come again, With angels power (yet of that day we all be uncertain)
To judge all people righteoufly, whom he hath dearly bought:
The living and the dead alfo which he hath made of nought,

And in the holy Spirit of God my faith to fatisfie, The third person in Trinitie beleeve I stedfassly; The holy and catholick Church that Gods word doth maintain, And holy scripture doth allow, which Satan doth disdain.

And alfo I do trust to have by Jesus Christ his death by Jesus Christ his death Release and pardon of my sinnes, and that onely by faith: What time all slesh shall rise again before the Lord of might; Andsee him with their boddy eyes, which now do give them light.

And then shall Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide,
And give life everlastingly to those whom he hash tri'd:
Within his realm celestiall
in glorie for to rest,
With all his holy company
of saints and angels blest;

Which ferve the Lord omnipotent obediently each houre: To whom be all dominion and praise for evermore.

A prayer to the boly Ghost, to be sung before the sermon.

Ome holy Spirit the God of might, comforter of us all:
Teach us to know thy word aright, that we do never fall.
O holy Ghost, visit our coast, defend us with thy shield:
Against all sinne and wickednesse Lord help us winne the field.

Lord keep our king and his counfel, and give them will and might To perfevere in thy gofpel, which canput finne to flight.

O Lord that giv'st thy holy word, fend preachers plenteously:
That in the same we may accord, and therein live and die.

holy Spirit, direct aright the preachers of thy word, H 2 That thou by them may it cut down flane as it were with a fword.
Depart not from thy pastours pure,
but aid them at their needs

Which break to us the bread of life, whereon our fouls do feed.

O bleffed Spirit of truth keep us in peace and unitie, Keep us from fects and errours all, and from all papifrie.

and from all papistric.

Convert all those that are our fors, and bring them to thy light:

That they and we may well agree, and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in us, and love so to abound; That man and wife be void of strife, and neighbours about us round.

In our time give thy peace, O Lord, to nations farre and nigh:

And teach them all thy holy word, that we may fing to thee,

All glory to the Trinitie that is of mighties most:
The living Father, and the Sonne, and the the holy Ghost.

As it hath been in all the time that hath been heretofore: As it is now, and fo shall be henceforth for evermore, Da pacem, Domine.

Give us that peace that we do lack
Through misbelief and illlife:
Thy word to offer thou doft not flac,
Which we unkindly gain-ftrive,
With fire and fword
This healthfull word
Some perfecure and oppreffer
Some with the mouth
Confesse to truth

Givepeace and us thy Spirit down fend,
With grief and repentance true
Do pierce our hearts, our lives to aniend
And by faith in Christ renew:
That fear and dread,
Waree and bloudshed,

Through thy fweet mercie and grace,
May from us flide:
Thy truth may bide,
And fhine in every place.

Without fincere godline ffe.

The Lamentation.

No, no; not fo thy will is bent to deal with finners in thine ire: But when in heart they shall repent, thou grant'st with speed their just defire. To thee therefore still shall I cry

I be thent, fith thee to please I do intend?

to wash away my sinfull crime: Thy bloud, O Lord, is not yet drie but that it may help me in time.

Hafte thee, O'Lord, hafte thee, Ifay, to poure on me thy gifts of grace,

That when this lefe shall flit away in heaven with thee I my have place?
Where thou dost reigne eternally (send,
with God which once did down thee

Where angels fing continually: to thee be praise world without end,

A.

A thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lords supper.

Sing the as the 137 pfalme.

The Lorebe thanked for his gifts an mercies evermore
That he doth thew unto his faints:
o him be laud therefore.
Our ongues cannot fo praife the Lord
as he doth right deferve:
Cir hearts cannot of him fo think a he doth us preferve.

His berefits they be fo great to us that be but finne,
That our hands for recompense there is no hope to winne.

o infull flesh, that thou shouldst have such mercies of the Lord!
Thou dost deserve more worthily of him to be abhored.

Nought else but sinne and wretchednesse doth rest within our hearts:

And stubbornly against the Lord we daily play our parts.

The sunne above in sirmament that is to us a light.

Doth shew it self more clear and pure then we be in his sight.

The heavens above and all therein more holy are then we:
They ferve the Lord in their effate, each one in his degree.
They do not firive for mafterfhip, nor flack their office fet:
But ferve the Lord and do his will, hate is to them no let.

Alfo the earth and all therein of God it is in aw,
It doth observe the formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein
doth bend when God doth beck:
The spirits beneath do tremble all,
and sear his wrathfull check.

Due we (slast) for whom all these were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord as doth the ox or mule.

A law he gave for us to know, what was his holy will:
He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

the Lord of life to please:
Nor doth the thing that might us lear to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not denie:
And he again of his good will would not that we should die,

Not one of us that feeketh out

Therefore when remedie was none to bring us unto life,
The Sonne of God our flesh he took to end our mortall strife,
And all the law of God the Lord he did it full obey;
And for our finnes upon the crosse his bloud our debts did pay.

And that we foould not yet forget what good he to us wrought,
A figne he left our cyce to tell that he our bodies bought.
In bread and wine here vifible unto thine eyes and tafte,
His mercies great thou may observed if that his Spirit thou haft.

As once the corn did live and grow, and was cut down with lithe, And threshed out with many stripes, out from his husk to drive; And as the mill with violence did tear it out to small, And made it like to earthly dust, not sparing it at all;

And as the oven with fire hor did close is up with hear, And all this done that I have faid, that it flould be our meat: So was the Lord in his ripe age cut down by cruel death: His foul he gave in tormens grear, and yeelded up his breath.

Bemuse that he to us might be an evertasting bread,
With much reproch and troubles great on earth his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time are pressed very fore,
And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more:

Because the juyce that in them is as comfortable drink
We might receive, and joyfull be when forrows make us shrink:

So Chrift his bloud out preffed was with nails and eke with spear: The juyce thereof doth save all those that rightly do him fear.

And as the corns by unitie into one loaf are knit:
So is the Lord and his whole church,
though he in heaven fit,
As many grapes make but one wine, fo should we be but one
In faith and love in Christ above, and unto Christ above,

Leading a life without all firife in quiet reft and peace:
From envie and from malice both our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we shew that we his chosen be:
By faith in him to lead a life as alwayes willed he.

And that we may to do indeed,
God fend us all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure with him to have a place.

Lord Jesus Christ, shew forth thy mghr,
That thou art Lord of lords by right:
Thy poore afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God holy Ghoft our comforter, Be our patrone, help, and fuccour: Give us one minde and perfect peace, All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in persons three, Thy name be prais'd in unitie: In all our need so us defend, That we may praise thee withoutend.
